

$122 Million to be Spent During 1959 On State Road Jobs

List of State Highway Projects Cleared With Incoming Governor

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Maintaining a fast pace with the benefit of heavy federal aids and record-high state road tax revenues, the state highway department announced today it intends to spend $122,800,000 for state highway improvement projects during 1959.

The detailed list of project plans was made public today, after having been cleared with Gov.-Elect Gaylord Nelson, who will take office in January.

Chairman Harold Plummer of the highway commission said the total expenditures budget covers engineering, some purchase of rights of way, and actual contract payments for new construction.

State Trunk Work Work on the state trunk highway system will cost about $46,752,000, according to preliminary calculations, and there will be $66,131,200 worth of work on the Wisconsin segments of the new federal interstate highway system which is being built to toll road standards. The "I" system is mostly in southern and western Wisconsin.

There will also be about $10,000,000 worth of improvement work on secondary roads off the state trunk system that are eligible for federal aid, but the precise improvements have not yet been selected, it was said.

The local roads are a part of the farm-to-market system in which Wisconsin excels in the country and will be chosen by county boards.

Plummer commented specifically on that aspect of the highway planning. "As intended by the legislature, the state highway commission over the years has strictly followed the policy that no one road system shall be developed at the expense of another," he said.

Tardy Progress (During the recent campaign for governor, Nelson complained about what he called tardy progress on the main line roads of Wisconsin and the state administration officials including Gov. Thomson replied that the state wants a balanced road program including steady im-

5 Die in Crash Of Jet Tanker

Limestone, Maine — Five airmen died in the flaming crash of a huge KC-135 jet tanker at Loring Air Force base today.

The air force said two of the men aboard were thrown clear of the wreckage and managed to get out "by some miracle." One of them escaped with a lacerated hand, the other suffered a broken arm and burns.

The survivors were identified as Capt. Herman J. Donsbach, 35, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman S. Donsbach of Kirkwood, Miss., and Sgt. Charles A. Holsclaw, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Holsclaw of Madison, Ind.

Names of the victims, whose bodies were recovered from the wreckage, were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The crash occurred in the same general area where a B47 jet bomber crashed late Saturday killing all four men aboard.

West Bound to Stay in Berlin, Nixon Asserts

Settlement Must Be Satisfactory to Germans, He Says

London —(AP)— Vice President Nixon began a 4-day visit to Britain today with a pledge that the west will stay in Berlin.

Nixon warned against a policy of "rewarding aggression" through appeasement either in Berlin or the Formosa strait. He spoke at a luncheon of the Pilgrims' society, an influential British-American friendship organization.

No Incidents The Nixon's arrived in England after an overnight flight from Washington. With London airport smothered in fog, they landed an hour late 20 miles south of London and caught a reserved carriage on a suburban train into the city.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney and other members of the official welcoming party hurried in from London airport to greet Nixon at Victoria station. Although the communists have scheduled an anti-Nixon demonstration tonight, there were no incidents as the party drove away from Victoria in 10 black limousines.

Nixon came to represent President Eisenhower tomorrow at the dedication of a chapel in St. Paul's cathedral which honors the 28,000 Americans killed in World War II operations in Britain and from British bases.

Must Stand Firm Queen Elizabeth II will entertain the Nixon's and have Thanksgiving dinner at the U.S. embassy with them. The vice president is scheduled to have four discussions with Prime Minister Macmillan on broad international problems, including Berlin.

Report Reds Hold Catholic Bishop

Hong Kong —(AP)— The U.S. consulate said today it was trying to pin down an unconfirmed report that Bishop James E. Walsh of Cumberland, Md., the last American Catholic priest in red China, has been arrested.

A Chinese attendant at the bishop's Church of Christ the King in Shanghai told the Associated Press by telephone that he had not seen the 67-year-old prelate for the last week.

121 Drunken Drivers Since Jan. 1st

Josephine Vanden Bloomer, 60, route 2, Kaukauna, was fined $100 and her driver's license was revoked for one year after she pleaded guilty in Municipal court this morning of drunken driving.

She was arrested by county police after her auto forced another car off Highway 55 north of County Trunk JJ shortly after 3 p.m. Sunday.

She tested .21 on the drunkometer. A reading of .15 is considered evidence of drunkenness.

Alaskans Cast Vote as State

Near Zero Weather And Snow Prevail In Much of Region

Juneau —(AP)— Paths to many of the 287 precincts were spread with fresh snow and it was near zero in much of this northern territory today as Alaskans voted in their first state election.

Upward of 40,000 were expected to brave the weather to cast ballots. About 60,000, including 19 and 20 year olds, were eligible to vote out of a population of some 210,000.

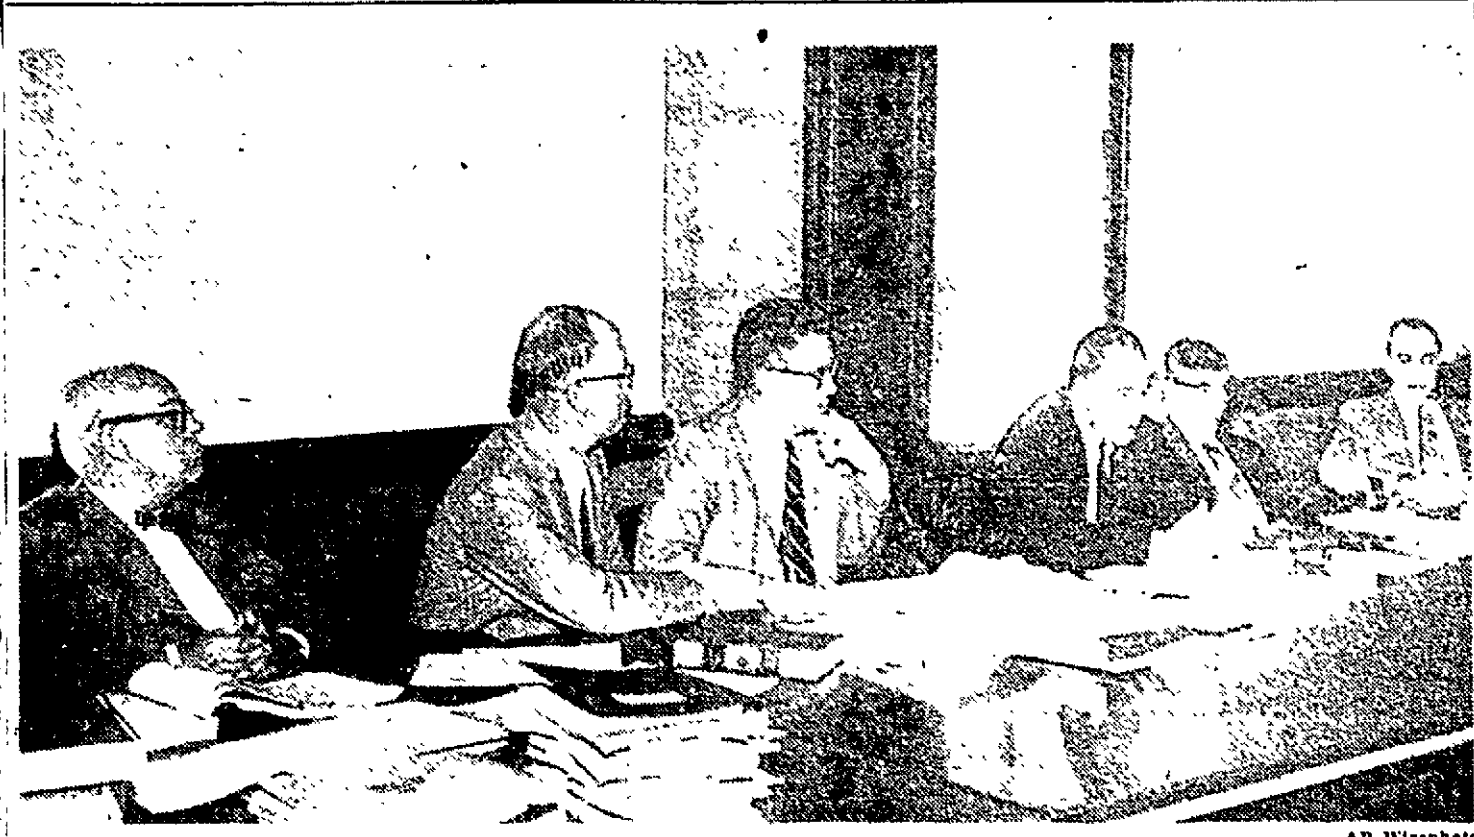

Being chosen are two new United States senators, a congressman, governor and 60 members of the first Alaska legislature. The territory will become the 49th and largest state in December or January after the election has been certified and a presidential proclamation issued.

Polls close at 8 p.m. Pacific standard time (10 p.m. CST) in the first of Alaska's four time zones. Voting will be over in all the territory four hours later.

This election will increase the permanent membership of the senate to 98 and raise house membership to 435.

Democrats already had an edge of 62-34 in the U.S. Senate and 282-153 in the house and were likely to add to the margin here today.

Cost of Living Not Changed

Some Items Down Slightly, Others Edge Upward

Washington —(AP)— Living costs as measured by the government remained unchanged in October.

The labor department reported today its consumer price index held steady at 123.7 per cent of the 1947-49 average. This is the same as in August and September. The peak was 123.9 in July.

Hersey E. Riley, labor department price chief, said the over-all living cost level is teetering in a narrow range with slight increases for some consumer items and counterbalancing slight declines for others.

"We have stability achieved by a balance of forces" Riley said.

He said this is expected to continue for the next few months.

In October, food prices averaged 1 of 1 per cent lower than in September but prices of most other goods and services averaged higher.

C. F. Kettering in Serious Condition

Dayton, Ohio —(AP)— A turn for the worse was noted today in the condition of Charles F. Kettering, famed automotive inventor and engineer.

His condition now is serious. He is in a coma.

Dr. G. Douglas Talbott issued a medical bulletin which indicated the 82-year-old Kettering has suffered a second and larger stroke. Kettering suffered a small stroke Sunday.

Dr. Talbott said "we are using all medical treatments available" for the aged "Boss Ket" whose ideas, inventions and improvements have had a profound effect on a dozen industries.

Amman, Jordan —(AP)— An unidentified jet plane dropped three bombs over Jordanian territory today and flew off in the direction of Israel, a military spokesman said.

All three bombs exploded in the aid, he said. He made no mention of casualties.

Emergency Surgery Success

St. Paul —(AP)— "Get scared? —there wasn't time—and after it was all over there was no reason to."

That was the way Robert F. Olson, 37-year-old suburban Rosemount farmer described his reaction today to a dramatic kitchen knife operation in which he saved the life of his 71-year-old doctor father who was choking on a piece of ham at a wedding anniversary celebration.

Condition Good The emergency surgery was performed Sunday by Robert and a brother, Charles, 40, in the 24-hour period ending at 9 o'clock: High, 33, low, 29. Temperature at 11 o'clock, 35. Southeast wind at 14 miles per hour. Barometer, weather map on Page A-11.

Union Must Show Cause Next Friday

Miami —(AP)— An eleventh-hour court order blocked a pilots' strike at American Air Lines and prevented the Thanksgiving holiday air travel crisis from becoming worse. Two other airlines are paralyzed by strikes.

The Air Line Pilots association had threatened to strike American at midnight. Federal Judge Frederick V. P. Bryan issued a temporary restraining order late last night enjoining the walkout.

In Chicago, Clarence Sayen, president of the Pilots association, said he had not been served with copy of the restraining order and that the strike deadline still stands.

"I don't know if we will comply with the court order. We have exhausted all the processes of the railway labor act several times over and nothing remains but to strike," Sayen said.

Eastern Air Lines, the country's largest air passenger carrier, shut down operations yesterday as flight engineers and mechanics went out.

Trans World Airlines has been struck by 6,700 machinists since Friday.

Expand Schedules The strike at Eastern sent holiday travelers rushing for alternate accommodations.

Other airlines were expanding their schedules and railroads added facilities to handle the Thanksgiving day throngs. It appeared that thousands of students, servicemen and others would not get home-cooked turkey dinners.

Judge Bryan's order required the pilots association to show cause by Friday why it should not be enjoined from striking. If sufficient cause is not shown, the order remains in effect while negotiations continue on the association's demands for higher pay, a shorter work schedule and rule changes.

Stop Work at Eastern American asked for the restraining order on the grounds that a walkout by its 1,500 pilots would violate railway labor act requirements for mediation and other compulsory "cooling off" measures.

The association argued it had fulfilled all such requirements.

About 7,500 Eastern employees stopped work yesterday, and both sides prepared for what they predicted would be a long strike. A company spokesman expressed doubt that it would be settled by Christmas.

Meanwhile, Capital Airlines said yesterday it would return to normal operations by today. A machinists' strike at Capital more than a month ago has been settled.

A spokesman for the Pennsylvania railroad said the line has been carrying extra equipment since the Capital strike.

Universal Air Lines asked the civil aeronautics board in Washington for emergency authority to serve Miami from New York and Chicago and National Air Lines said it will run additional flights.

Eastern serves 124 cities in 25 states, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico and Bermuda. Neither party to the strike has reported any move to straighten out contract differences that touched off the strike.

Zarubin, Soviet Ex-Envoy, Dies

Moscow —(AP)— Georgi Zarubin, former ambassador to Washington and the Soviet spy ring was revealed there, was dead at 58.

The Soviet news agency Tass said he died yesterday after an illness. It gave no cause of death. The communist party central committee announced Zarubin's death "with profound regret."

Zarubin had been seen around Moscow only a few days ago. He was Soviet ambassador to Washington for five years before he became deputy foreign minister in charge of personnel last January.

He was the Soviet ambassador to Canada during 1944-46 when a communist spy ring was exposed.

Dr. Charles Olson

Physicians said they had to do "a little repair work" on the incision in the doctor's throat, but that the two brothers saved the older man's life.

Neither brother had any medical training, but Robert said he was elected to perform the operation "because I knew where the trachea (windpipe) was."

Charles Olson said his father's face was "grey-black" when they carried him from the dining room where some 30 guests were celebrating the doctor's 25th wedding anniversary.

Cut Fountain Pen Barrel Judge Andrew A. Glenn, a St. Paul probate judge, said that after Robert made the incision a tube was needed to insert in the throat. He said he tried cutting a piece from the handiest object, a hula hoop, but it was too big so they cut a piece from the barrel of a fountain pen he was carrying.

Charles Olson said "it took some pounding and moving him about, but we got my father breathing again."

Seek to Head Off Soviet Boycott of Space Study

Compromise Workers Hope to Have U. S., Russia Agree on Make Up of UN Committee

United Nations, N. Y. — An army of small nations pressed a last-ditch effort today to head off a Soviet boycott of a new UN committee to study peaceful use of outer space.

The compromise seekers hoped to get the United States and Russia together before the assembly takes final action authorizing establishment of the new committee. But their chances of success appeared slight.

A parade of the smaller countries appealed for Soviet-American accord last night after the UN's 81-nation political committee voted 54-0, with 18 abstentions, for a resolution sponsored by the United States and 19 other nations.

18-Nation Committee

The resolution would create an 18-nation committee to do the groundwork for a permanent UN body to coordinate utilization of outer space for peaceful purposes.

The resolution nominates Russia, Poland and Czechoslovakia to the space committee, but the Soviets still disapproved of the lineup and announced they would boycott the group. The nine votes against the resolution came from the Soviet bloc.

Most of the abstainers were Asian or African nations.

The political committee rejected a last-minute proposal by India, Burma and the United Arab Republic. It would have brought the United States and Russia together again in private talks in an effort to reach an agreement on composition of the new committee.

Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said such talks at this time would be pointless and might only aggravate tension.

Despite the bleak prospect, Ireland, after the balloting, appealed to east and west to make one more try at getting together.

One Last Attempt

Mexico also called for "one last great attempt to reach a compromise." Several Asian nations joined in the appeal.

The Soviet Union had insisted that the study group include three Soviet satellites as well as Russia, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin asserted that no progress would be made without Russia taking part. He said that a year from now, the UN would find its space program no further advanced. Zorin withdrew a Soviet resolution calling for an 11-nation committee, including four western members, four Soviet bloc nations and three neutrals.

Lodge declared that the study group would prove fruitful even without Russia on it. He said inclusion of four Soviet bloc nations on the committee was not justified and that Soviet insistence on this point had brought the collapse of last week's Russian-American negotiations.

Apathy Could Defeat U. S. Corn Program

Farmers Vote Today On Three Proposals Backed by Benson

Washington — Farmers officials said grower apathy could well result in defeat of a new federal corn production program in a 26-state referendum today.

Such an outcome would set back efforts of Secretary of Agriculture Benson and the American Farm Bureau federation to pull the government further out of the job of controlling agriculture and fixing its prices.

Upwards of three million farmers in a designated commercial corn producing area in the midwest, east and southeast were eligible to vote for one or the other of these proposals:

The Proposals

1. Elimination of present acreage planting allotments and offer of price supports on all corn at 90 per cent of the average price during the three previous years, but not less than 65 per cent of parity.
2. Continuation of acreage allotments — first authorized in 1938 — and the offer of price supports between 75 and 90 per cent of parity to only those growers complying with allotments.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

Officials said reports from many producing areas indicated a general lack of interest in the referendum.

This could reflect arguments of the National Grange and some leaders of the National Farmers Union that neither plan offers farmers any hope for stabilizing prices and supplies of corn. But the farm bureau has been putting on an active campaign for the new proposal.

Agriculture department officials arranged to tabulate the returns tonight. They expected the outcome to be known shortly after midnight.

Missile Base Will Have Top Secrecy

Los Angeles — All firings at the Pacific missile range complex, including Vandenberg Air Force base and naval installations at Point Arguello, will be surrounded by maximum secrecy.

The range commander, Rear Adm. Jack P. Monroe, told a civic group yesterday, "We do not want our enemies to know either what we are firing, the rate of firing or any information about successes or failures." He added: "We simply cannot afford to make available to Russia the amount of information which has been published in the past."

Because of the noise it will be impossible to conceal that missiles are fired from launching pads, he said, "but we can conceal the success or failure of any attempt."

School Bomb Threat Looks Like Hoax

Concord, N. C. — Principal Luther Adams says the bomb threat which caused evacuation of the nearby Mount Pleasant High school yesterday "looks like a hoax."

A wooden cylinder found in a cloakroom after the 9:30 a. m. deadline for the explosion turned out to be stuffed with paper. The cylinder was a roller used in clay modelling at the racially segregated school of 1,200 pupils.

There has been no agitation for integration in the area.

Classes resume today at the consolidated school in the village of 1,000 population seven miles east of Concord.

Dep. Sheriff Parks Mullis received a telephone call at the Mount Pleasant police headquarters at 9:15 a. m. from a man he described as "crying while talking and apparently hysterical." The caller said the bomb would explode in about 15 minutes. He gave no reason.

A fire alarm was sounded at the school. The pupils marched out in orderly fashion, unaware of the bomb threat. They were dismissed for the day.

Former French Hatchet Man Must Back New Government

Jacques Soustelle Looms as Top Leader in National Assembly

Dog Bites And Claws Boy to Death

Eric, Pa. — Three-year-old Michael Kaminski was bitten and clawed to death yesterday by a pet German shepherd dog on the family farm in nearby Harborside.

State police shot and killed the dog which previously had shown no apparent vicious tendencies.

Officers said the 6-month-old dog, given to Michael's parents two weeks ago by relatives, apparently sprang at the boy at the entrance of the barn and dragged him about 60 feet.

Michael was pronounced dead by a physician who was summoned to the house. His face, throat and scalp had been clawed.

Mrs. Kenneth Kaminski said Michael had left the house, some 50 feet from the barn, only minutes before the attack.

A family friend, Betty Exlein, attracted by the barking of several dogs, found the boy's body at the rear of the barn. She said the German shepherd was standing over the body. The other dogs were some distance away.

The Kaminskis had moved to the farm three weeks ago.

BY HARVEY HUDSON

Paris — Jacques Soustelle, a hatchet man who delighted in collecting scalps of governments under the Fourth Republic, now must find ways to make French cabinets more durable.

Soustelle is looming as one of the big men of the new national assembly as a result of the extraordinary success of his new party, the union for a new republic (UNR), in the first round Sunday of elections for a new assembly.

The UNR got 17.6 per cent of the votes and elected 10 deputies. In runoff balloting next Sunday, the party is expected to roll its assembly strength to well above 100 and perhaps as high as 150 deputies. It may well emerge as the biggest single group among the 546 assembly members.

Party May Fall

The UNR actually is a jerry-built coordinating committee for three separate smaller parties. It was put together for the elections and may fall apart after the voting is over. The only cohesive element is that all the founders are old time supporters of Premier De Gaulle.

Some reports have said De Gaulle found the UNR surge a little embarrassing because of the faction's rightist tinge, especially on the critical Algerian issue. Soustelle and his cohorts are closely allied with the European settlers in Algeria, who are clamoring for all-out integration with France. De Gaulle has refused so far to endorse this idea and is reported to favor a solution linking the two areas on a federal basis.

One report was published yesterday that if De Gaulle is elected president—as is generally expected—he would prefer to avoid naming Soustelle premier. This report said the general might turn instead to Michel Debre, now justice minister, who had a big part in framing the new constitution. Debre is also a veteran Gaullist.

Political Dynamite

Soustelle is charged with tons of political dynamite. He was one of the main plotters against the Fourth Republic and a leader of the uprising in Algeria which brought the republic down. Political leaders of the center and left, particularly the socialists, have not forgotten this.

Whether or not he is premier, Soustelle must work hard to preserve the Fifth Republic which he did so much to create. He must help to keep the new regime from being hamstrung by the ever-changing governments of former years.

It is a complete reversal for Soustelle. He personally forced the downfall of Premiers Maurice Bourgès-Maunoury and Felix Gaillard and his scheming tumbled Premier Pierre Pflimlin and the republic itself.

Bakery Worker Admits Slaying Youngster, 10

New York — A young bakery worker has confessed, police say, to the murder of 10-year-old Rose Ann Breen, a golden-haired Irish girl. Her battered body was found yesterday beneath a staircase in her Bronx apartment house.

Police said Jerry Roth, 23, confessed to the killing but insisted he had not sexually assaulted the child. He was booked on a charge of homicide.

Arrested after police broke into his apartment, Roth denied all knowledge of the crime for more than six hours, then broke down late last night and admitted the slaying, police said. First described as unemployed, Roth was on vacation from a job as meat-mixer in the Manischewitz bakery in Jersey City, N.J.

His 18-year-old wife, Annette, who is pregnant, was under sedation and near collapse last night. Roth's father, Joseph, collapsed from a heart attack in the police station when he learned of his son's confession.

Slender, blue-eyed Rose Ann was attacked as she returned from a shopping errand for her family yesterday afternoon. Police said the slayer apparently used only his fists.

McCulley was a onetime newspaperman. He wrote many plays at the turn of the century.

Army to Make First Space Probe Dec. 6

Washington — The army hopes to fire its first space probe on Dec. 6. It will be much lighter and simpler than the ones the air force used in three tries at reaching the vicinity of the moon.

The launching will be made at Cape Canaveral, Fla., the base from which the air force sent aloft its lunar probes earlier this year. One of these was partially successful, but two other rockets failed not long after takeoff.

Now Combination

The army plans to launch a new rocket combination it calls Juno. This comprises a modified Jupiter intermediate range ballistic missile and three rocket stages fueled with solid propellants.

The probe, riding in the nose of the rocket, will contain 15 pounds of instruments while the probe case will weigh another 15 pounds.

The air force lunar probes weighed about 85 pounds, with instrumentation accounting for about 25 pounds of this. Unlike the air force, the army goal is to pass the moon and head toward the sun.

If the probe enters the sun's field of gravity, it could be pulled into orbit. Then it would be a baby planet revolving about the sun just as earth, Mars, Venus and the other planets do.

Cape Canaveral soon will have to share attention with the Pacific coast in missile and space vehicle launchings.

December Launchings

Informed sources say the first launchings from Vandenberg air force base near Lompoc, Calif., will come in December.

There had been speculation that the new launchings would include the reconnaissance satellites Sentry and Pied Piper. They would circle the earth, about 200 to 400 miles up, and scan the land below.

But a defense department spokesman said yesterday the Sentry and Piper will not be tried for at least a year.

Hunter Dies as Wife Awaits Birth of Child

Milwaukee — A young hunter, wounded by a stray bullet, died Monday at the same hospital where his wife was waiting the birth of their fourth child.

Eleven deer hunters have died of gunshot wounds since Wisconsin's 16-day deer season began Nov. 15. Heart attacks have claimed 14 lives and one hunter was asphyxiated while sleeping in an automobile.

Ernest Thomas, 28, of Sparta, died Monday of a wound suffered Sunday when a stray bullet struck him in the chest. The bullet ripped downward through his body. Thomas was hunting 10 miles north-east of Sparta.

His wife, Margaret, 28, had been admitted to the hospital Saturday night to await the birth of their child.

Elmer Kilgore, 36, of rural Kewaunee, died of a heart attack Monday while he and his father hunted in Forest County. Kilgore had a history of a heart ailment.

$5 Million in Highway Funds Set for Northeast Wisconsin

Outagamie County Jobs on '59 Schedule Include Highways 41, 45

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — About $5,000,000 in federal and state funds will be used for state and related highway construction improvements in the Appleton area and immediately adjacent territory during 1959, the state highway commission says.

Additional sums will be spent on field engineering work for other construction projects to be completed in 1960 and succeeding years, according to a break-down supplied by the commission.

Principal 1959 improvements projected in the Fox River Valley and environs follow:

Outagamie County

Brown county: Grading and surfacing of 7.87 miles of Highway 57 between Green Bay and Dyckesville, $440,000.

Outagamie county: Surfacing of five miles of Highway 45 between New London and Hortonville, $125,000.

Structure on U. S. Highway 41, $670,000.

Calumet county: Sherwood crossing signal on Highway 55, $12,000.

Door county: Surfacing on Highway 42 in the city of Sturgeon Bay, $47,000.

Manitowoc county: Grading, structures and surfacing on 4.58 miles of Highway 42 between Manitowoc and Two Rivers, $1,106,000.

Waldo boulevard surfacing in the city of Manitowoc, $75,000.

Marinette county: Grading and base course on seven miles of Highway 180 between Wausaukee and Marinette, $307,000.

Oconto County

Oconto county: Structures, grading on Highway 32 between Mountain and Lake-wood, $175,000; Stiles crossing signal on Highway 141, $12,000.

Shawano county: Grading and surfacing of 15 miles of Highway 29 between Shawano and Wittenberg, $822,000.

Winnebago county: An interchange junction of highways 41 and 45, $508,000.

Waupaca county: Seven miles of grading on Highway 45 between New London and Highway 22, $65,000.

Forest county: Seven miles of structures, grading and base course on Highway 8 between the west county line and Crandon, $534,000.

The commission also committed itself, in effect, to substantial additional improvements in early years through engineering appropriations for many other roads in the north-eastern counties, including Highway 41 from Kaukauna northward, Highway 57 north of Green Bay, Highway 42 proved.

Says Bombing Not Linked To Integration

Hobbs, N.M. — Officials of a bombed integrated school say they have no reason to think racial tensions caused the explosion, "and we hope it was a simple act of vandalism."

One room of the Heizer Junior high school was badly damaged by the explosion of what appeared to be a single stick of dynamite thrown through a window or skylight Sunday night. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

FBI agents, state police and local officers reported no luck in following out several leads to the identity of the dynamiters.

Prin. Rex Haynes said there was no indication that the presence of about 65 Negro students among 611 pupils was the motive for the bombing. The school has been integrated since 1954.

Earl Westfall, Hobbs safety director, said, "so far, there's no indication that it was anything but vandalism."

Case of Leaky Roof Headed Toward Court

Board Asks Attorney To Start Action on Franklin School Issue

The question of paying for repairs to the leaky Franklin school roof appears headed toward the court.

After lengthy discussion Monday night, the school board instructed City Atty. Jury to take steps necessary to start court action.

The resolution came after the board heard a Johns-Manville company representative, manufacturer of the flashing used on the roof, deny his firm's product was cause of the leakage. He said his firm would not pay for repair or replacement.

Neutral Party Gerald Hoffman, of Hoffman company, general contractor, and Maury Lee Allen, architect, offered to pay part of the cost of having a disinterested party find where the fault lies.

A. G. Borsche, roofing subcontractor, protested use of the term "roof" in describing where water gets into the building. He said it hasn't been proved where the fault lies.

Business Director William R. Knuth noted the condition is getting worse and may continue for several more months, no matter what the outcome of litigation.

President Surprised Board President Krueger said he was surprised the Johns-Manville company had no desire to compromise on the issue.

"You'd think the company would be interested enough in placing the blame to get together with the other firms involved," Krueger declared.

"It looks like we'll have to determine the outcome in court," Jury said when asked what the board should do.

The board indicated it would ask Jury to write letters to Johns-Manville and its surety company, asking them if they intend to make repairs. If they refuse, the case probably will go to court, board members agreed.

Hearing Set On Proposed Road Change

Council Members to Study Request for Clarifying Records

Kaukauna — A public hearing relative to the request of the Thilmann Pulp and Paper company for the city to vacate a portion of a public street necessitating changes in the official city map will be held at 7 p.m. Dec. 2 in the council chambers.

The hearing was asked by Thilmann to straighten up a problem which arose from the manner in which the Thilmann road was built several years ago. In 1949 the city deeded property to Thilmann, reserving a strip of land in the deeded area for road purposes.

Later a road was built in the area but it was not constructed on the strip reserved for road purposes, rather 40 feet to the east of the site. To clear the records and make the legal description conform with existing conditions, Thilmann offered to deed to the city the land on which the present roadway exists.

Extend Street
The city will in turn deed to Thilmann the 40-foot strip which had originally been reserved for road purposes. The roadway currently is used by Thilmann to get behind the lower mill and to reach the city sewage disposal plant. In conjunction with the request to straighten records, Thilmann has requested the city to begin planning for future extension of the road to government property along the Fox river. Since the request involves vacating of a city street and a change in the official map, state law requires a hearing although, since it involves no one but the firm and the city, no objections appear likely.

Kimberly High To Meet East On Wednesday

First Home Tilt For Papermakers In 1958-59 Season

Kimberly — After an impressive opening victory over Appleton, the Kimberly High school basketball team will meet another Fox Valley conference team as Green Bay East invades the Papermaker gym Wednesday night.

Junior varsity teams of the two schools will meet at 6:30 and the varsity clubs pair off at 8:15. This is the first home game for Kimberly.

In their initial appearance the Papermakers showed a lot of promise as they handled the Terrors easily, winning 74 to 44.

Coach Gil Frank of the Papermakers is blessed with good height and shooting ability. Against Appleton the Kimberly team shot 51 per cent and topped that mark in a scrimmage against Hortonville earlier.

Last year when Kimberly met East at Green Bay, the Papermakers trailed most of the way but came from behind in the fourth quarter to edge by the Red Devils 51 to 49.

Probable starters for Kimberly are Darrell Jansen and Jack Lamers at forwards, big Tom Rooyackers at center and Dave Minten and Don Hearden at guards.

Reserves who indicated that they are capable performers in the Appleton game include Jeff Vander Velden, Dan Van-

What About Gunaca?

One of the interesting questions which will face Gov.-elect Gaylord Nelson after the first of January is what to do about John Gunaca.

Gov. Thomson has several times pressed Gov. Mennen Williams of Michigan for the return of Gunaca to stand trial in the beating and subsequent death of a non-striking Kohler employee. Gov. Williams has refused to abide by the United States Constitution which holds that such a request must be honored. Once he refused on the grounds that Gunaca would not get a fair trial in Wisconsin. Later he tried to set the conditions and site for the trial. In fact, of course, Gov. Williams' indebtedness to the officials of uniondom in Michigan has established his decision. Gunaca was a union employe suspected of coming to Wisconsin to stir up trouble in Kohler where enough existed already.

During the last election in Wisconsin charges were made that Nelson, if elected, would also find that he was indebted to labor officials.

So it will be interesting to have the answer. What will Gov. Nelson do about John Gunaca?

Putting Dynamite Back to Work

At this time when everybody appears to be mentally teetering on the brink of the space age, it is rather comforting to read about a new development which employs one of the oldest tools of modern man — explosives.

Many corporations, both large and small, which require metal shaping as a part of their business are now using dynamite and other explosives for that purpose. The Wall Street Journal recently published a review of the development of this rather new method of shaping metal. Each company has a different way of using the explosive and perhaps the best method has not been discovered yet.

The clearest example given in the Journal's article was that explaining the practice of the Moore company of Marceline, Mo. The dynamite charge is placed in the center of a circular hand of steel within a barrel-shaped die which is made of impact-resistant steel. When the dynamite is exploded the strip of steel is hurled outward against the die and the steel in that instant takes the form of the die, just as clearly and firmly as if it had been forced into it by a huge press. The theory is that "the sudden explosive pressures on the metal are so great that they are thought to turn it into a gluey liquid for a few millionths of a second — enough time to form it against the die."

The metal forming process is very appealing to companies that have a limited amount of such work to do. It is impossible for many of them to own the huge hydraulic presses that would be necessary, and it often is uneconomical for them to farm the work out to other corporations. On the other hand many corporations are using this method because it can do things that huge presses cannot do. Some aircraft and missile makers are very interested in the process because some of the tough alloys they are required to use are very difficult to handle and many of them are too much for the most powerful presses available. In other instances the dynamiting process avoids much time and trouble; an example of this is in the forming of the cumbersome missile domes that are several feet in diameter and would require several heatings and press squeezings if they were to be handled by the usual method. With the dynamiting plan it is completely formed in one blast.

Now that many companies are engaged in experiments with this kind of metal forming, new ideas are being developed which not only speed up the processes but also are leading to better control of the explosives and many uses beyond the mere forming of metal. Explosives are now being used in some forms of welding and piercing metal, so that in the future many articles will be on the market literally shot into production as one piece free from rivets or any sign of welding.

By Jupiter, Here's to Venus!

If you want to get in on some interstellar real estate — some that's only a few million miles away — you'd better file your claim pretty soon. Otherwise you may have to content yourself with the outer frontiers of the universe.

Even now you can't have the moon or Mars, since these are the respective properties of Charlene Majers and her cousin, Mitchell Herring, the latter, mind you, a Marine — although he hasn't landed on Mars yet.

The United States Reclamation Bureau is in a quandary about the claims. Although it feels it cannot recognize them, it hasn't rebuffed them.

Charlene is of Guntown, Miss., and majers (beg pardon, majors) in geology at Mississippi university. All the natural resources of the moon, the golden moon, are hers. Her mother, Mrs. Katie Hopkins Majers, filed this notice for her Oct. 14, 1950, at Tupelo, Miss.:

I, Charlene Majers, am hereby placing claim on planet moon and shall defend said title against any persons or nations that might attack.

Here's hoping the Guntown miss will be there to warn off Khrushchev when he lands on the moon from his supersputnik. Imagine his confusion when, in his courtly manner, he decides to settle for Mars instead and finds a Herring already in possession — and not a red herring, either. Wouldn't it be something to hear him tell it to the Marines?

Out-of-State Funds in Proxmire's Campaign

From the Wisconsin State Journal

Every voting resident of Wisconsin should be shocked and angered at the source of the campaign funds the state's junior senator used in his slick, hard sell campaign for reelection.

Consider the picture: Proxmire's main voluntary committee, up to filing its pre-election report last weekend, reported taking in $47,724 — of which more than 80 per cent came from out of state.

And of the outside money, roughly one-half came from the political action arms of big international unions, raised from the "voluntary" contributions with which both union members and Democratic politicians are so familiar.

There were individual contributors as well.

Their names present a typical roster of liberal intellectual type fat cats from New York, Washington and Philadelphia.

For a change of pace, there's a Houston, Tex., name: member of a family which controls one of the biggest cotton brokerage firms in the South.

And a Connecticut millionaire, heir to a Standard Oil bundle, put in a $2,000 pot-lance.

What have these generously-offered contributions from the East and South bought for Mr. Proxmire?

So far, they have fetched a saturation of the radio and television stations in Wisconsin, from phony "rough and tumble" press interviews with Democrat trained seals to equally phony "Say Tom, hello Joe" radio spots that

Still Hope for Fluoridators, Physician Says

From the Memphis Commercial Appeal

Let the fluoridators cheer up. In another generation there were chlorinators, whose effort to make public drinking water more beneficial was fought with some of the same arguments now advanced against fluorides.

The reminder comes in the midst of an interview with Dr. Mark D. Hollis, assistant surgeon general of the United States, in the magazine, U. S. News & World Report.

Dr. Hollis was asked why, if chlorine is a poison, people accept chlorinated water but make a big fuss over the proposal for fluorides in the public water supply. His answer was:

"Around 1910 there was just about the same type of reaction to chlorination, because at that time public understanding had not developed.

"I think chlorination was accepted more readily than fluoridation because of its very dramatic effect in reducing the dysenteries and diarrheas and typhoids, whereas fluoridation is a long-range effect in the prevention of dental decay. Its use is not as dramatic as was chlorine."

Dr. Hollis also was asked whether there is any evidence that many years of chlorine in the water has led to more chronic diseases in old people. His answer was: "Not at all."

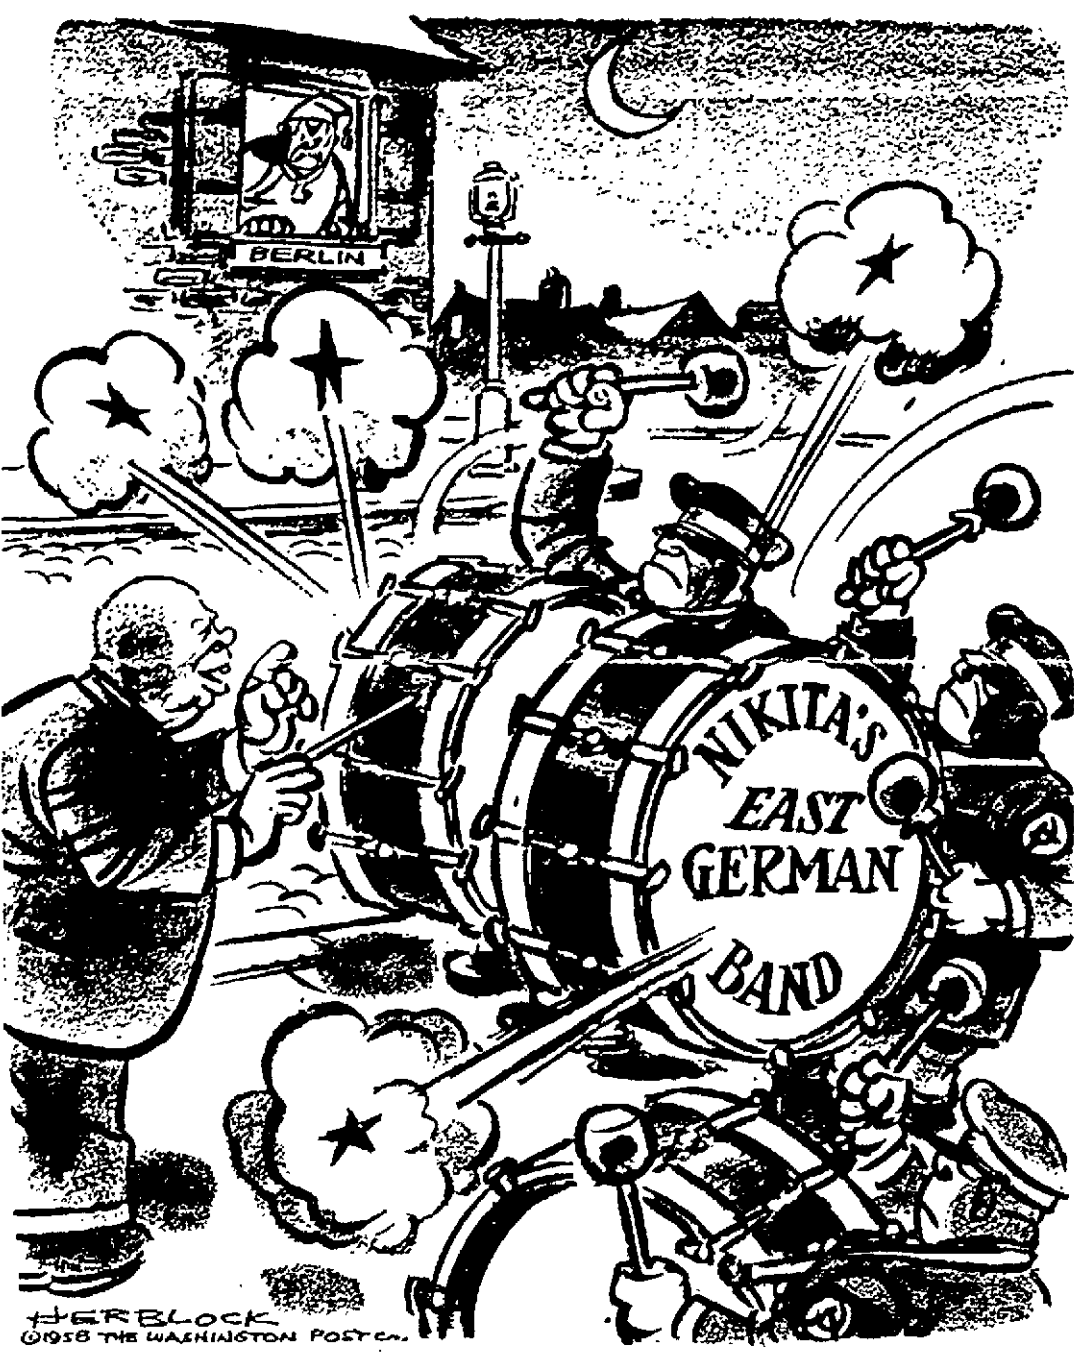

Increased attention long overdue. Now if we could institute, in other sectors, some sweaters for tolerance we would be able to focus on American principles without worrying about debris in temples and hate in Little Rock.

Moral Values Get Boost

Writer Wants to Know What's Happened to Folks Who Like Dogs

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Dogs still like people, but it seems that people have deserted "man's best friend" or else have become too busy and too self-centered to take time to care any more.

If anyone doubts that dogs (and cats) like people they should make a visit to the Outagamie County Humane society animal shelter. Of course, they get a bit excited and a little noisy (the dogs do) when they first see a visitor, but when they quiet down, many of them come wagging their tails and putting their noses through the fence asking for attention and showing off their accomplishments. I saw one dog walking back and forth on his hind legs and waving his forepaws. Perhaps he didn't know he was a dog.

I was surprised, shocked, and saddened to read the announcement in the Post-Crescent, Nov. 20, 1958, that the animal shelter would be closed due to lack of municipal support. And I was horrified to read, Nov. 21, that there is no heat in the city dog pound at Center swamp. Is it only people who get cold?

The chief and almost only source of food is scraps that Mrs. Jessie Erlanson, in charge at the Outagamie county shelter, picks up, at her own time and expense, from restaurants, hotels, and dormitories. Mrs. Erlanson goes to great trouble to see that her charges are made as comfortable as possible, which takes quite a bit of doing without funds. And she gives them the care and affection which pets that have been lost or deserted so crave.

Cats as well as dogs are cared for at the shelter, for although fewer people like cats, those who do feel just as strongly about their welfare as do the dog lovers about their pets, and people who do not like cats just do not understand them.

When the city ordinance prohibiting dogs from barking was passed, we gave up trying to keep a dog for a pet (our dogs couldn't read and kept forgetting not to give an occasional bark) and acquired two kittens which are now full-fledged members of

Sends $200 To Society For Pet Care

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The announcement of the temporary closing of the Outagamie County Humane society shelter has just come to my attention.

Needless to say I was that there wouldn't be civic deeply shocked to think that in a city the size of Appleton pride enough to keep the doors open of a shelter for lost and unwanted animals.

In this day of juvenile delinquency which has become such a nationwide problem it would seem to me that kindness to animals and care for the lost and homeless would be of tremendous importance in the setting of better standards by adults. A little more kindness in the world is what we really need.

Appleton is fortunate in that you have a working humane society with a shelter,

Looking Backward

Dr. Huntley Gives Popular Lecture

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of Nov. 29, 1879.

The popular President of Lawrence University delivered his excellent lecture, termed "One-Third of a Man," to a large and appreciative audience at the M. E. church Tuesday evening.

He referred to the usual division of the faculties, Intellect, Sensibilities and Will, and said that the one-third of man he was to talk about was the Sensibilities. Emotions or Feelings as they are sometimes called.

The lecture was brilliant and practical. The manner and voice of Dr. Huntley are very pleasing and he has a way of "putting" things that interest an audience without wearying them.

Under the Capital Dome Democrats Act Quickly To Regroup for 1960

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison—Democrats have been more realistic in assessing the results of the elections in the state this fall than the Republicans, some of whom have not yet recovered from the shock.

Characteristically, the Democratic state organization moved quickly for a state committee meeting for an appraisal of the vote trends and their meaning, and to set in motion the campaign that it hopes will consolidate the party's new power in the next elections two years hence.

It was a shrewd move. Impetus is relatively easier to maintain in a party which has had a great victory. But it also told something of the mental processes of these practical men. They know that Democratic rule is not yet assured. They know that healthy parties have great recuperative powers and they dare not assume that the Republicans have been smashed beyond repair.

for example, only two years ago.

They retain one state house officer, five members of the house of representatives, one member of the senate, and a substantial share of the administrative offices in the state government which are out of the reach of the incoming Democratic administration because of the laws providing for staggered terms.

They hold one house of the state legislature with fair security. They remain clearly the majority party in some strategic voting districts, such as big Rock county in southern Wisconsin, and the populous and strategic Fox river valley in northeastern Wisconsin. They have retained some of their best younger leaders.

A more important practical consideration was candidly related to the Democratic committee last week by Democratic Chairman Patrick Lucey. Democrats today have some kind of a foothold in 38 courthouses, or about twice the number of two years ago. But Republican county officials, even after the strong Nov. 4 tide, outnumber the Democrats in county offices by a margin of nearly four to one.

The importance of those courthouse outposts in practical campaign organization is enormous. It was one of the GOP during the last 20 years, and it will be a vital fact around which the party reconstruction job can be planned.

Some of those county officials are actually nonpartisans, in all except name. Some of them have little loyalty to the party as such. Yet they are elected officials. They wear a party label they will be loath to abandon. They must run for reelection, and in the process they constitute a campaign machine of considerable force.

Mechanically the Republican party survives in better condition than is usually expected when a party loses decisively at the polls. There should be no doubt about the possibility of rehabilitation. The question is how, and under whose direction. Whether the new men and the new outlook the party will probably need will appear, the next six to eight months should show.

THE MEASURE

Actually there are some real danger spots remaining on the Wisconsin map for the victorious Democrats. Conversely, they represent hopeful signs for the Republicans, if they have the wit to see them.

The dramatic impact of the Democrats' historic showing on Nov. 4 was so great that some of the details were not fully understood at the time.

Yet a longer look shows that the Republicans, for all of their demoralizing reverses, are in considerably better shape than were Democrats.

and every city of your size realizes the civic necessity of the service to the community that such an organization provides and sets aside a working fund for the operation of such service.

So that the shelter will not have to close its doors we are sending $200 to help them carry on and it is my fervent hope that you will lend your aid editorially (or by printing my letter) to arouse the city and those citizens who are financially able to do so to see that this little shelter is able to carry on and is able to care for God's creatures. Remember that "What ye do unto the least of these ye do unto Me also."

Sale of Beer to Minors Presents 2-Sided Problem

From the Memphis, Tenn., Commercial Appeal

Perennial among the problems that face many town and city governments is that of stopping the sale of beer to minors. The usual practice, we believe is to put all the responsibility on the seller and to penalize him more or less severely if he peddles his brew to those who are less than the age the law prescribes.

The seller who knowingly permits minors to buy beer contrary to law deserves discipline and no question about it. On the other hand, it is sometimes difficult to tell about the age of a would-be purchaser. Some youngsters beg, borrow or steal means of identification in the effort to trick the merchant into law violation.

What about the buyers who knowingly and deliberately buy stuff to which they know the law says their age does not entitle them? The question seems a fair one that deserves an answer. It might help solve the difficulty if buyers were punished for breaking the law and it would be on the side of fairness as well.

These Days
Jewish Rabbi Honored
By Men of All Faiths

BY GEORGE SOKOLSKY
New York — After reading an enormous mail of unseemly hate and uncivilized bigotry, my wife and I toggled ourselves out in our best and went to the Plaza hotel, here in New York, where a gold medal of merit would be presented by the Jewish war veterans to Chaplain Joshua Goldberg of the navy.

Josh, as he is generally known, was born in Russia and studied to be a rabbi. He came to the United States in 1916 in time to volunteer for service in World War I as a soldier. This gave him an opportunity to learn English so that he speaks it, even in sermons, with a soldier's familiarity with earthy terms. When World War II came around, he volunteered as a chaplain in the navy and has made that so much of a career that he has achieved considerable distinction and is the first of his faith to be the chaplain in charge of the third naval district, which is one of the most important.

The turnout at the party at the Plaza was indeed remarkable, for navy, army and air force brass appeared in surprising numbers. The award was presented to Rabbi Goldberg by no less a person than Gen. Omar Bradley and the two principal addresses were delivered by former Sec. of the navy Charles S. Thomas and Cardinal Spellman just returned from Rome.

No Hate
There was no hate, no bigotry, no narrowness in that room. There was cooperation, friendship, love of country. Presiding during one phase of the dinner was Major Gen. Melvin Krulwich of the marine corps; during the remainder, Benjamin Kaufman who is a congressional medal of honor holder from World War I.

Cardinal Spellman was very amusing, indeed. Harry Hershfield, the humorist, had been called upon to speak. At one point, he said: "I like a Catholic to be a Catholic; a Jew to be a Jew; a Mohammedan to be a Mohammedan." It was no great shakes of a point, because one is what one is and the audience let it pass. But when Cardinal Spellman arose, he repeated what Harry had said and added, "I would like to say a wee word for the Protestants." The audience realized that Harry had been topped and everyone was pleased.

Rabbi Joshua Goldberg, captain in the navy, has played an outstanding role in the development of the chaplain from a sky pilot to a servant of the officers and men in the armed services, without regard to religion, race, color, or rank. The chaplain has become the companion of the boys and he has the right to do things to save the mind and the spirit of a man in service, caught in the maelstrom of battle, far from home, far from his beloved ones.

And it is because Chaplain Goldberg has served so ardently and continuously, and at such enormous sacrifice in this broad manner, that so many military men came to this dinner. Many from a great distance.

Chaplain Goldberg remains at his post. Sooner or later, he will be retired for age, but it is to be hoped that he will continue to represent the United States, perhaps with advanced rank, in these international meetings as a symbol of the ideal of unity with differences which is characteristic of our country.

Blazing Oil Spills
Into Creek Causing Spectacular Mile Fire

Washington — Giant flames crackled on the waters of a creek for a mile last night in a spectacular fire that caused $350,000 damage.

Little Falls creek burst into flame after blazing oil from 12 fuel storage tanks spilled into it.

Firemen, who extinguished the blaze early today, had to fight through the thick black smoke that clogged the area on the northwest edge of Washington. Two firemen were hurt slightly.

The oil company that owned the tanks took the entire loss. No residential property was damaged.

4th Daughter Born on Nov. 21 To Texas Couple

Houston, Texas—P—Nobody has figured out the odds against it but Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. LeBlanc have the birthday party problem for their five daughters pretty well whapped.

Wrap up four parties in one big one every Nov. 21 and the other on May 3.

Jarleth, daughter No. 5, arrived last Friday, Nov. 21.

First there was Andrea, born Nov. 21, 1951. Then came Loretta on Nov. 21, 1953. Next was Dieder on—yep—Nov. 21, 1955.

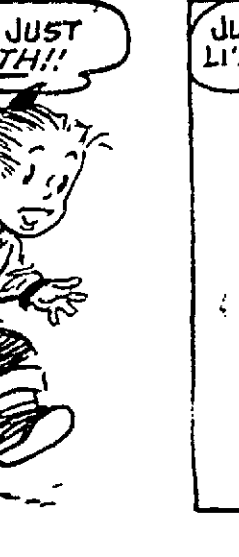

"It just seemed to happen that way," LeBlanc said. Jarleth, he said, was even a little late. They expected her about Nov. 17.

The fifth daughter? Oh, that's Donna. "She's an odd one that came on May 3, 1957," Mrs. LeBlanc, 39, said. "Their family doctor said he wasn't sure of the odds. But he did say they were 'pretty infinite' against four children being born to the same parents on identical dates in different years."

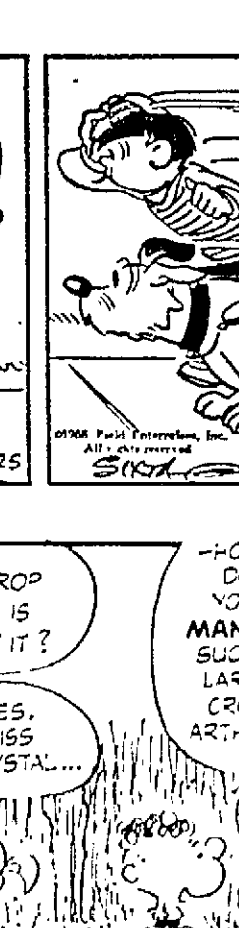

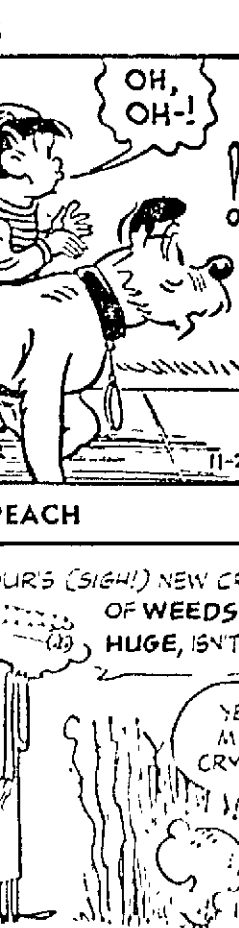

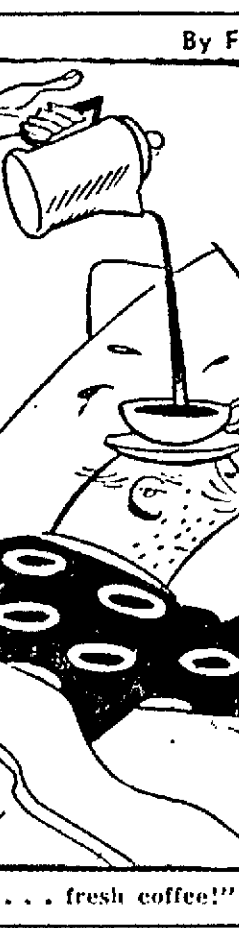

"I'm going to call the planned parenthood about this," Mrs. LeBlanc said, settling back in her hospital bed.

Pope Salutes Pius XII in Roman Rite

Rome — (B) — Pope John XXIII paid tribute to Pius XII Sunday as he took possession of his see as bishop of Rome, the basilica of St. John Lateran.

"Pray God," he said, "That our work as the new universal pastor remain in the bright path of Pius XII, and that those devoted to divine science gather around our person in greater number than ever so that divine science may illumine the human intellect in all its expressions."

Pope John said his predecessor's memory will "Remain glorious in the centuries."

Thousands of Romans lined the sidewalks to cheer the pontiff as his 10-car motorcade drove slowly across the city from the Vatican to Rome's oldest basilica. An honor guard of the Italian army saluted him at the Lateran square.

The pope received the keys of the basilica from its Archbishop, Benedetto Cardinal Aloisi Masella. Then, as silver trumpets pealed a welcome, he was carried on his portable throne down the length of the great church. A long procession of Swiss guards in medieval armor, members of the pontifical noble guard, deacons and other churchmen — escorted him through the crowd of 5,000 inside the church.

After celebrating mass, Pope John read an address in Italian stressing his role as "the priest, the father, the pastor."

Then the pope appeared on the balcony of the basilica to bless a throng of 100,000 gathered there, cheering and waving handkerchiefs.

A Surprise Trick That's Fun Is This Machine Gun Letter

BY CAPPY DICK

Every boy and girl enjoys playing a good joke on dad or mother or some other good pal.

One of the best jokes I'd ever heard of is the Machine Gun Letter. I tell for it hard. Afterward I asked how they made it and they showed me. If you would like to make one, too, you'll find all the directions in the adjoining sketch.

All you need is a piece of writing paper, a hairpin, a piece of adhesive tape and an envelope.

Roll the hairpin into a horseshoe as Jimmy has indicated. Fasten it flat to the paper with the adhesive tape (Figure 1).

Next, get a small ring and loop two rubber bands through it as shown in (Figure 2). In turn, loop these bands over the prongs of the hairpin.

Twist the ring around, wrapping the rubber bands up tightly. Fold the paper and put it into the envelope as you would a letter (Figure 3).

Hand the envelope to your victim and ask him to read what the letter says. When he starts to open the paper, the ring will revolve rapidly and make a noise surprisingly like machine-gun fire.

Your victim (Figure 4) will indeed be surprised.

Machine gun letter is a real surprise.

Little and Jimmy Strong ever played on me (and they always have something good up their sleeves!) is what they indeed be surprised.

FCC Head Raps Subtle Form Of Censorship

Expresses Views in Proposal to Revise Licensing Forms

Washington—(AP)—T. A. M. Craven, a federal communications commissioner, said today FCC has long exercised a subtle form of censorship over radio and TV programming. He said he is strenuously opposed to this. Craven expressed his views in a lengthy dissent to a commission proposal to revise and simplify some of the forms filled out by applicants for new broadcasting stations and by stations seeking license renewal. The forms require the applicant to state what percent of his air time has been devoted to various types of programs, such as religion, agriculture, news, sports, and so on. Get Rid of Listings Craven said that if the forms were to be revised, it would be a good time to get rid of these listings. He said they inevitably suggested what FCC wanted the station to handle in its daily programming. The commission has always taken the position these categories were simply designed to serve as guideposts for the broadcast industry. But Craven said the applicant filling out the forms "knows fully well that his views are designed to be evaluated in the light of preconceived opinions of the regulating agency." He noted that the communications act prohibits the commission from censoring programs, except for barring obscene and indecent material and advertisements of lotteries. In this connection, Craven said: "Task of Programming "The commission should discontinue using program proposals as one of the criteria on which it bases its approval or disapproval of an application. . . . In general, he said, the commission "should leave the task of programming in the age of his air time has been public interest exclusively to or will be devoted to various types of programs, such as religion, agriculture, news, sports, and so on. Craven said he believes the individual station owner is the one who should be acquainted with the program needs of his audience than FCC could possibly be.

The Rev. Maurice McCrackin, who has refused to pay income taxes because part of the money goes for military purposes, again had to be carried into U. S. district court in Cincinnati Monday. Once in court, the pacifist pastor sat in silence, answered no questions, declined to enter a plea or heed lawyers. He was sentenced to jail indefinitely for contempt of court.

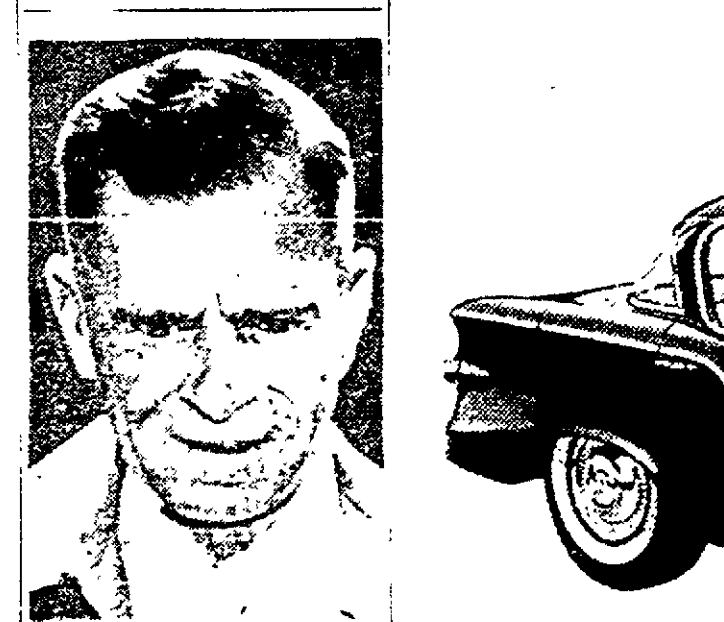

University of Wisconsin Honors Oldest Station, WHA

Madison—(AP)—The University of Wisconsin Monday toasted state radio station WHA as the "oldest station on the air." The program included the unveiling of an inscription honoring the late Prof. Earle M. Terry, who did pioneer radio work in a small laboratory here in 1917.

Weather, Markets
By 1919, when many other experimental stations had ceased operations, Prof. Terry and 9XM-WHA on the university campus were beaming weather, market and crop information to farmers on a regular basis. The state station, designated WHA in 1922, has been on the air ever since. All other stations of the 1917 period have gone out of existence. Dr. Conrad Elvehjem, university president, spoke at the memorial banquet, saying, "WHA has held firm to its basic purpose—education." He said, "There is a real temptation, I know, in this age of mass communications, listener counts and hidden persuaders, to seek the broadest possible audience with sugar-coated messages. Held Aloof "WHA has held aloof from these temptations, insisting always on quality offerings, knowing that while there is sugar enough on the airwaves to satisfy anyone's sweet-tooth, the mean of education is hard to come by on most channels." Dr. Elvehjem said that WHA

Mrs. Dodge Found Innocent

Los Angeles —(AP)—Gregg Sherwood Dodge, actress-wife of auto heir Horace Dodge II, has been found innocent of charges that she committed battery against four police officers. But a municipal court jury ruled yesterday that she was guilty of having been intoxicated, and the court set sentencing on that count for next Monday. Mrs. Dodge charged at her trial that officers dragged her by her hair, used a judo hold on her, and that policewomen humiliated her by searching her in front of male officers. She was arrested Aug. 26 along with Chicago columnist Irv Kupcinet, who still faces trial on a drunk driving charge.

Hugh D'Autremont, 54, won parole Monday after serving 31 years in the state prison at Salem, Ore., for murder in a 1923 train robbery attempt.

West Bound to Stay in Berlin, Nixon Asserts

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1 threat to pull out of the 4-power occupation of Berlin as "the latest Soviet probing action." He said: "When the resolution of the free world is tested by such operations, we believe it is essential to show our unmistakable determination to stand firm. "We have made clear our determination to remain in the city until a German settlement, acceptable to the German people, has been achieved." One of the biggest mistakes the Russians could make, he said, would be to view the Democratic party gains in the recent elections as a vote against President Eisenhower's foreign policy leadership and a sign of weakening against aggressive tactics. The vice president defended the American position on Formosa. Possibly thinking of labor party critics of this policy whom he will meet during his visit, Nixon said there "are many well-intentioned critics of this firm policy. . . . Our disagreement is not on ends but on means. We all want peace . . . rewarding aggression does not stop it; it only encourages more aggression in the future." Nixon urged new attempts to overcome difficulties which have blocked establishment of an economic community for

Elephant's Head Stand Crushes Man

Port Arthur, Tex. —(AP)—A grumpy circus elephant did a headstand on a man yesterday and crushed him to death. The elephant, named Dorothy, had previously injured 11 persons. James Lloyd, 28, of New York City and another Hagen Brothers circus employee were walking past Dorothy when she lashed Lloyd to the ground with her trunk. Deputy Marshal Martin Carey quoted witnesses as saying. She then butted the employee with her head and after a couple of tries, performed a headstand on him. Circus attendants drove her back with blows and shouts, but Lloyd's head and chest were crushed and he died in about an hour. Carey is deputy marshal at Groves, a Port Arthur suburb, where the circus was setting up for a 1-day stand. The southeast Texas officer said the attack appeared unprovoked. James Cole, circus manager, said none of Dorothy's previous victims had suffered serious injuries. "She is very valuable. She is the best performing elephant we've got," he said. Cole said Dorothy was 12, relatively young for an elephant. No immediate decision was made on what to do with the huge beast. "The challenge of international communism requires a cooperative economic as well as military effort on the part of the whole Atlantic community," he said.

Cost of Living Not Changed

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1 the last three months, there will be no adjustment in pay rates for nearly one million workers in the auto and related industries whose labor contracts call for quarterly adjustments based on the government index. However, decreases of about 1 cent are scheduled to go into effect in the pay rates of about 220,000 other workers, whose contracts have a different adjustment basis than the auto worker group. The workers thus due for a pay cut—the first such downward adjustment based on the government index since March, 1956—are employed by the Westinghouse Electric Corp., Deere & Co., Chicago Transit Authority and the Convair Aircraft division of General Dynamics Corp. Spendable earnings of factory workers and the buying power of those earnings fell one thing, he said, turkeys in October from a September peak. The reason was shorter working hours due to labor strikes in the auto, fabricated metals and machinery industries. After federal tax deductions the take-home pay of the factory worker with three dependents was $76.58 a week in October; that of the single worker $69.14. Each figure is about 85 cents below the September record high. New Cars Higher Consumer Costs for transportation, medical care and apparel were higher in October. The transportation group was influenced primarily by a 4.2 per cent increase in the cost of new cars as higher price tags on 1959 models outweighed slight declines in dealer prices for new 1958 models. In the food group eggs, poultry and apples were all lower but beef was higher. Riley forecast a drop in pork prices next spring when the new pig crop is marketed, but said beef probably will remain high all next year because of the relatively short supply situation. Riley had some good holiday news for consumers. For one thing, he said, turkeys are cheaper this Thanksgiving. Also, he said, toys are selling for less this year in the pre-Christmas buying.

Earl Warren Possible 1960 GOP Candidate

Endorsement by Walter Reuther Called Significant

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington—Lots of things can happen in two years — and one may be that Vice President Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller will not remain the only personalities prominent in the discussion of prospective Republican nominees for the presidency. There is always the possibility that the name of Chief Justice Warren will be tossed into the ring.

Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers union, told a television audience the other day that, among others, Warren would make a good presidential nominee in 1960. This is a significant endorsement from the man who is being hailed as having a powerful voice in the American electorate. In view of the significant success of the labor union recently in electing to congress a majority of Democrats, the importance of such a tribute cannot be minimized.

Warren has denied any presidential ambitions, and has made his selection in favor of his son as his successor. But it will be recalled that the Associate Justice Charles Evans Hughes, said virtually the same thing several times before he was nominated by the Republican party in 1916.

Warren won the governorship in California in 1946 as the nominee of both parties. He is known as an outstanding vote-getter. Noting that Messrs. Knowland and Nixon were unsuccessful in their efforts in the last California campaign, many Californians say Warren could have won if he had been a candidate this time. He made a speech in San Francisco last month on federal state relationships which was considered by some observers as having political overtones, since it was delivered during the campaign.

It is true that Warren would not attract any southern states because of the views he expressed in the desegregation case in 1954, but the Republican party can write off the possibility of winning any electoral votes in the south no matter who the Republican nominee may be. The sending

New York Stock Market Takes Tumble

New York — Is the big bull market of 1958 over? That was the question being asked in Wall street today after the stock market took its biggest tumble in three years. An estimated $6,700,000,000 was erased from total value of all stocks listed on the New York stock exchange yesterday in a prolonged burst of selling. Leading stocks dropped from $1 to $4 a share or more.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell $5.20 to $200.70 for the sharpest decline since a plunge of $11.15 on Sept. 26, 1955, after President Eisenhower's heart attack.

On Friday the average was down $1.80, the biggest decline in a month. Yesterday's shakeout came after a consistent 8 month rise in the market which had set one record high after another. On April 4, the AP average stood at $159.40. Bullish sentiment then swept Wall street and the market advanced steadily with the average setting an all-time high in October. Last Thursday the average reached a new peak of $207.70.

Some brokerage houses suggested that a correction was about due. Brokers said that some traders used these reports as an excuse to take profits on stocks which had gone up sharply. Most Wall Street sources said institutions were doing little selling. Institutions also were doing little buying, they said, and this accounted for some of the wide losses.

The Dow Jones industrial average stood at 544.89 after a drop of 14.68. The one drawback for the Democrats in considering any Warren for President is his record on so-called liberal issues. In view of the significant success of the labor union recently in electing to congress a majority of Democrats, the importance of such a tribute cannot be minimized.

Warren is a man for whose rise the Republican party is largely responsible. He owes his appointment on the high court to the recommendations received by President Eisenhower from influential members of the Republican party. Also, the desegregation decision of 1954 is in conformity with the Republican party's protestations on civil rights over a long period.

If the Republicans really feel they must go modern to win next time, they have in Warren, as a presidential nominee, the incarnation of modernism in American politics.

Budget Highlights

'I'm New Here,' Says Personnel Man; 'So Am I,' Replies Nelson

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Karl Wettengel, formerly of Appleton, state personnel director, was apprehensive when he came before Gov.-elect Gaylord Nelson Monday to explain his budget requests for the next two years.

"I'm new at this job," he said, as the audience chuckled appreciatively.

The state income tax form may be changed soon, the state director of purchases hinted during his testimony. The department of purchases has charge of all state printing purchases, and is now considering the feasibility of a form in the shape of a tabulating card, for machine statistics purposes.

Purchasing Director Herbert Schmiede rattled off a list of typical commodity procurement problems of his agency, to illustrate the magnitude of the state government supply job. Item: the state buys $100,000 worth of coffee each year, to supply state institutions and their staffs, patients, inmates and students.

Gov.-elect Nelson had heard during his campaign, he said, that it costs as much as $4 to process a state agency requisition through the purchasing department and the state budget and accounts. The figure is approximately correct, said John Gibson, director of the state department of research, which is the reason why departments have been encouraged lately to buy directly in the market when trivial items of small cost are involved.

The state employee merit award program needs more support from the governor's office, reported Roy Kubista, lobbyist for the Wisconsin State Employees association.

Many of the ideas for which employees have been given ingenuit awards have been filed away, unused, because the governor's office has not pressed department heads to exploit them, said the employee representative.

Gov.-elect Nelson is apparently resolved to embarrass one of his winning state ticket mates, by pressing for the abolition of the office of state treasurer. Eugene Lamb, Milwaukee Democrat, was elected to the job in November.

J. J. Keliher, state auditor, was describing under Nelson's questioning the few duties that survive in that ancient office as a result of recent legislative acts. In actuality, the treasurer merely receives cash receipts, puts his name on checks issued in payment of state bills, and is the custodian of the state's investment securities, managed elsewhere.

Nelson asked why the remaining function couldn't be transferred to another department. Keliher said it was not his official business to make such recommendations, but that his personal opinion was that the move would be a good one.

How many state employees are there? The question came up repeatedly during the first day of appropriation hearings. The latest report of the state department of personnel has it that there are about 25,000, including some seasonal and part-time workers, a gain of about 3,000 during the last decade.

borrow directly under the constitution.

3. Budget Director E. C. Giessel, the state's chief finance officer, doesn't know the present extent of such corporation borrowing, or what the maximum limit of such borrowing is under present law, because the separate d u m y corporations keep their own books and run their own affairs.

4. J. J. Keliher, the state auditor, admits he is falling behind in the state agency audits required by statute because he cannot hire enough auditors in today's competitive professional labor market.

5. Herbert Schmiede, state director of purchases, lauded the savings achieved through a centralized mailing service for state capital departments, but said he hasn't yet installed such centralized service in the larger state office building a block away because he has lacked the manpower.

6. Karl Wettengel, the state personnel director, feels frustrated because of the lack of coordinated personnel policy of state agencies. Wettengel was apparently bidding for more personnel control authority by his division.

Suggest Reorganization 7. F. N. MacMillin, director of the Wisconsin State Retirement system, which administers the state and local government employee pension plan, reported that he is falling behind in his work and needs more money and staff to keep his affairs on a current basis.

It was evident that the governor-elect lumped the service agencies together for the first day's hearings in order to suggest support for his reorganization idea.

But there was no hint of partisan politics as such during the long day's proceedings. Most of the chief officers questioned are non-partisan career men, although they owe their advancement and their appointments to Re-

Cadillac

Even Newer from Behind the Wheel!

Odds are you've seen the new 1959 Cadillac by now—perhaps sweeping regally past you on the boulevard . . . perhaps making its majestic arrival at a fine club or hotel. And odds are, too, that you've wondered if this 1959 "car of cars" could be as superlative in performance as it is in appearance.

Well, once you've found out for yourself, we think the truth will very likely amaze you. For this Cadillac is even newer from behind the wheel!

You will sense it, in fact, the moment you hear the whisper-quiet response of its great new engine. And your sentiment will grow to conviction as you discover the other wonders of Cadillac's new performance . . . responsiveness so immediate and so sitken in every driving range that it is difficult to believe . . . handling ease so remarkable that you follow the curves and corners with the lightest imaginable movement of hand and wheel . . . a quality of ride so smooth and level and quiet that even the byways travel like boulevards.

Indeed, the evidence will be overwhelming—a journey at its wheel is the world's most glorious interval between start and stop.

And the proof of all this is no farther away than your nearest authorized Cadillac dealer.

He'll be delighted to make you his guest—to explain the virtues of each of Cadillac's thirteen new Fleetwood-crafted models, including the fabulous new Eldorado Brougham—and to let you take the wheel for yourself.

Education Goals, Not Cost Alone, Important

There are all sorts of so-called speculation on education and its meanings, but few are really concerned. Most people start with an important subsidy, a very concern, how to pay for education, rather than what kind of education is most worth paying for.

ident Douglas M. Knight's sixth semi-annual message to the Lawrence college board of trustees Monday at Milwaukee University club.

"Lawrence's real concern is not to pursue dollars," he continued. "Our real concern is to pursue a certain vision of the college. We depend on the money to make our ideas come true, but the money by itself is no substitute for our ideas."

He spoke first of the sense of "lively learning" particularly evident on the campus this fall, and cited three ways it is being strengthened: a recommendation now before the faculty for senior departmental examinations, progress toward a plan of grant-in-aid college credit for particularly able high school work, and development of a modest but sound and stimulating program in Indian and Chinese studies.

$14 Million Program

"In the physical plant as in the educational structure we are after something, we are pursuing an idea of excellence," President Knight went on.

He listed seven physical needs which should be met in the course of the next five years, totalling more than $14 million dollars. They are: a dormitory to house 160 men at a tentative cost of $800,000; an additional $400,000 library expansion; $50,000 to provide for relocating administrative offices; $100,000 additional for infirmary facilities; $125,000 for additional science lab space; and $60,000 apiece

There must still be large future increases, particularly in the instruction budget and student aid, he said.

President Knight cited the following figures: In 1953-54, the instructional budget was 52.3 per cent of the total operation; this year it is 48.6; in another five years it must rise again to 51 per cent or beyond. In the field of student aid, five years ago 6.5 per cent of the college's operation went into student aid; this year it is 11.5 per cent; five years hence it must achieve at least 15 per cent.

"I would describe our true goal this way: the achieving of excellence, of a kind of perfection in everything we do but an appropriate and unique perfection rather than the kind which does not really grow from the spirit of the place," Knight concluded.

Man Fined $25 for Beating Employer

Alfred Bellack, 52, no permanent address, today was fined $25 for beating Earl Heagle, about 70, on the latter's Oneida farm Friday.

Heagle testified that Bellack quit, then demanded money. When Heagle didn't give it to him, Bellack hit him twice, his employer said. Bellack, explaining two black eyes to Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmitz, said Heagle's son hit him.

Asked why he hit the older man, Bellack said Heagle called him a dog.

In another action, Schiltz has named O u t agamie County Coroner Bernard H. Kemps mortuary officer for the county.

The city turned down a request for a $1,000 appropriation. Outagamie county has granted $1,000 for the society but the funds will not be distributed until March 1.

Larry Alsbrook, executive director of the Appleton Community Fund and Appleton Community council since June, 1956, has resigned effective Dec. 1. Alsbrook came to Appleton from Irvington, N. J., where he was director of the Community Chest and Council.

In 1957, the eight social welfare agencies partially supported by the fund received 22 per cent more money than in 1956, when there was no employed director and the fund was administered by volunteers.

One of the benefits from the 22 per cent increase has been expansion of agency services. Among the agencies, four new staff positions have been filled.

New Ideas on Thanksgiving Cited by Pastor

Religious Aspect Supplanted by Food, Promotion, He Says

Changes through the years in the American attitude toward Thanksgiving and a need for emphasizing the religious aspect of the national holiday were discussed by the Rev. Carl E. Wilke, rector of All Saints Episcopal church, before the Appleton Lions club Monday.

Rev. Wilke before the Appleton Lions club Monday.

The Rev. Mr. Wilke said Thanksgiving day was originated in colonial America to thank God for his bountiful goodness, but in modern America there seems to have been a transition from the religious aspect of the holiday to the "groaning board," or plentiful food and drink.

The commercial world, said the speaker, uses Thanksgiving as a day to launch the annual pre-Christmas sales and promotional programs designed to move merchandise.

In the country's most heavily populated metropolitan area, New York City, Thanksgiving is characterized by a gala parade, a specular event to which children come in droves, he said. A strong emphasis is placed on annual football contests. These examples, said the rector, all indicate a fundamental change in the way of thinking in America. Religion and Thanksgiving are not as firmly bound together as they used to be.

Reviews History Looking back into history, the Rev. Mr. Wilke said that in 1620 when the Pilgrims landed they were religious refugees who came to a new country to worship in the way they chose. Many hardships confronted them and disease and despair took over the lives of more than half the settlers.

He urged people to be grateful for being able to live in a nation in which political ideas are based on sound principles and which firmly opposes the communistic way of life.

Yet in December, 1621, when the first harvest was brought in, the governor, William Bradford, proclaimed that a day of Thanksgiving should be set aside.

After a church ceremony, Indians and white men sat down at a banquet, marking the first formal Thanksgiving day observance. In July, 1623, when rain came just in time to save the Puritans' crops, another Thanksgiving celebration was held.

In years following there were some similar services, but in Abraham Lincoln's day it was formally proclaimed that the day of Thanksgiving would be observed on the fourth Thursday of every November, he said.

Ungrateful Attitude In this country where people have so much, an attitude of ingratitude often is noticed, he said. "We have spiritual and material gifts galore," he said. "In this country, as is not true in many others, supplies are abundant."

He urged people to be thankful for their homes, which exhibit a higher standard of function and convenience than those in any other part of the world. Educational, recreational and social opportunities offered to children also should evoke a feeling of gratitude, he said. "Although 'togetherness' has been overdone of late," the speaker said, it is an enviable characteristic of the American way of life.

Welfare Work Vital Part of Government

Milwaukee Mayor Says Cities Need Social Services

Post-Crescent News Service

Milwaukee — Social work is intertwined with city government in many ways, Milwaukee Mayor Frank Zeidler told an institute of the Wisconsin Welfare forum this morning. He said the aid of welfare workers is vital if a city is to reach a successful conclusion to its many and varied problems.

He pictured a large city of today as a sort of monster which can destroy physically or may induce mental aberrations. For these reasons—physical or mental destruction—social work must be an adjunct of the city.

The communities today, he said, are in a state of drastic transition. From 60 to 65 percent of people in the United States live in incorporated areas. This high density, he went on, is one of the reasons for the breakdown in human life.

Partial Solution Decreasing the density, the mayor said, may be a partial solution. Among the problems a city and its social agencies must face are those of increased mechanization, such as in traffic and industrial automation, housing, and the introduction of new cultural groups.

Customs of society have changed, he said. People don't walk to the corner store but ride to the shopping centers. Bus transportation falls off because people watch television at night and don't use public transportation systems. Patterns of building construction have been altered because people want to get out of the city. Many of these problems, Mayor Zeidler said, call for community action.

Three Teenagers Fined; Bartender Denies Charges

Three teenagers were fined $25 each and a bartender denied charges of allowing them in the Copa-Cabana, tavern, 1534 E. Wisconsin avenue. Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede set trial for April 16 and separate bonds of $28.95 for Lud Freund, 39, who gave the tavern as his address, on two charges of allowing minors in the bar.

Freund denied allowing the three teenagers in the bar about midnight Friday.

Fined were Mrs. Elaine Hoefler, 18, 181 Sherman Place, and Dennis Wiegert, 19, 1007 Lafollette street, Little Chute. Both were arrested after Mrs. Hoefler's estranged husband, Edwin, complained to police that his wife was in the bar.

Also fined was Mrs. Mary Van Roy, 19, 337 E. Washington street, who told Judge Schmiede that she was just visiting the bartender's wife. Mrs. Van Roy is estranged from her husband, former policeman Thomas Van Roy, and was accidentally shot by him last August.

Charge Dismissed

A disorderly conduct charge against Howard Cornelius, Oneida, was dismissed in municipal court today after his wife, Nellie, told the court she did not want to prosecute. Cornelius was arrested after his wife complained he was beating her in their home Wednesday.

Institute Given $50,000 Grant for New Laboratory

The Institute of Paper Chemistry has received a grant of $50,000 from the Lou Calder Foundation for a new laboratory to be known as the Lou Calder plant biochemistry laboratory.

(Louis Calder is president and director of the Perkins Goodwin company, New York City, and is affiliated with many paper manufacturing concerns throughout the country.)

Research made possible by these new facilities will attempt to study the mechanisms of wood development and to separate and identify the highly complex building blocks or materials of the tree.

Among the areas to be examined are the enzyme systems of developing plant cells, the enzymology and biochemistry of plant genetics, certain aspects of high polymer chemistry of natural products, and related fields.

Work of this kind is concerned with numerous problems of the pulp and paper industry and is profoundly important to the ultimate technology of that industry.

Funds provided by the gift will be used to purchase and install ultracentrifuge and electrophoresis equipment of the latest design. In addition, complete and modern facilities will be provided for freeze-drying biological and biochemical preparations.

The laboratory is expected to be complete and ready for use about March 1, 1959.

Post-Crescent Society Staff Writer

Foreign themes were the inspirations behind "south-of-the-border" and oriental parties held Saturday night by Fox Cities residents.

The Society of Guadalupe entertained 100 members and guests at a benefit dinner and card party at the Ambrosia room. The spirit of the southern Spanish peoples was caught in the menu, costumes, dances and decor.

The Homebuilders Couples club of the Memorial Presbyterian church gathered at the church in authentic Japanese costumes for an evening in the orient. Highlights were Chinese food, decorations including rickshaws, eastern bridges, lanterns, fans and wall murals, and flute music and Korean songs presented by a Lawrence student, Zi Hung-Sa, An Yang, Korea.

Far-East Menu The far-eastern menu included chop suey, chow mein, sweet sour pork, fortune cookies and sherbet. The sweet sour pork was made by Mrs. Sheridan Huss, whose recipe is:

Sweet and Sour Pork
Home spiced pineapple juice (spiced to taste)
2 pounds pork
4 stalks celery—chopped large
1 green pepper—chopped large
1 medium onion—finely chopped
1 small can mushrooms
1 cup spiced pineapple juice
3 tablespoons corn starch
3 tablespoons soy sauce
Juice of whole lemon
1 teaspoon garlic
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 small can pineapple tid-bits
1 cup cashew nuts

Method: Brown the meat in small amount of fat. Add pineapple and lemon juice. Add celery, green pepper and onion and simmer for one hour. Thicken with corn starch. Add all other ingredients except nuts. Bake for one hour at 350 degrees. Garnish with cashews.

The other more uncommon dish was almond cakes or fortune cookies, which ended the oriental meal in grand style. Here is an authentic almond cake recipe:

Almond Cakes
Mix 2 1/2 cups flour with 3 teaspoon baking powder and sift into large bowl. Cut in 1 cup of lard and 1/2 cup sugar. Add 1/2 teaspoon almond extract, 1 small egg and 1 tablespoon water. The dough should be soft and pliable. Knead it, and place it in the refrigerator for five minutes.

Form into balls 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Press down with the palm of the hand to form cakes 1/2 inch thick. Press an almond into the center of each cookie and place on floured cookie sheet.

Bake for five minutes at 350 degrees. Reduce heat and bake for 10 minutes at 300 degrees. To make authentic fortune cookies, type fortune on small piece of paper, roll in a small ball and place in the center of the dough as you form the ball.

The reading of the fortunes by each guest present was part of the evening's entertainment.

Funds for Orphanage. Menu items were also a featured attraction at the Spanish party staged to raise funds for Father Wasson's Boys' Town, an orphanage near Cuernavaca, Mexico. The founders formerly worked at Boys' Town, Neb. A donation will also be made toward a crucifix for a migrant workers' chapel at Oconto.

Special TV Report on American Jew Dec. 7

NBC-TV to Look at Red China Through Rare Films on Sunday Afternoon, Jan. 4

BY JINGO

"The American Jew: A Tribute to Freedom," a full hour special report on Jews in America, will be presented at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 7, by WBAY-TV and CBS-TV network. The study will attempt to show the vast Jewish contributions to America's developing culture. Both live and on film, the program will introduce Jewish statesmen, scientists and entertainers whose fame is world-wide and Jews who are known only to their neighbors.

Among the more distinguished who will appear are former United States Sen. Herbert H. Lehman; Dr. Bela Schick, discoverer of the Schick test for susceptibility to diphtheria; Dore Schary, Hollywood and Broadway producer; Actress Susan Strasberg; Cartoonist Al Capp; and Actor Jeff Chandler, who will narrate.

The program replaces "Camera Three" and a news show for one time only.

NBC-TV, through WMBV-TV, will present the first real television report from red China at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 4.

Color and black and white film will be supplied by John Strohm, first American to enter red China with state department permission since the Korean war. Veteran Commentator Cecil Brown will join him in the narration.

It's called "The Great Leap Forward" and will show that a grass roots anti-American campaign provides the impetus for the "great leap."

Jingo's Jewels: Johnny Ray, returning from a 6-week tour of South Africa, Maureen O'Hara, Denise Lor and Noonan and Marshall are Gary Moore guests tonight. Richard C. Hottelet today began a series of four interviews on modern art with Maureen O'Hara of the Philadelphia Museum of Art, during his 7:45 a.m. news program. Jackie Cooper will be on the "To Tell the Truth" panel for four weeks, starting tonight. Half-Hour Drama By Monash Called 'Vastly Superior'

BY CHARLES MERCER
New York — Those who believe that effective drama cannot be accomplished in a half-hour of television should have taken a look at "Guy in Ward 4" on "Goodyear Theater" Monday night over NBC-TV.

The drama by Paul Monash based on a Harper's Magazine story by Leo Rosten was vastly superior to most of the mash and melodrama that clutter channels these evenings.

It was a simple story movingly played by a cast of three. Richard Kiley portrayed an army psychiatrist, attached to the air force in England during World War II, who was goaded by his sergeant, played by Charles Aidman, into working the emotional restoration of a flight gunner.

The gunner, played by Edward Ryder, was killed on his return to active duty, causing the psychiatrist to have the same feelings of guilt that he had purged from the gunner. The sergeant restored the psychiatrist in the same way that he had observed the psychiatrist aid the gunner.

Brevity of time resulted in an overly simplified statement of the therapeutic nature of sodium pentathol (truth serum). But the strength of the drama more than compensated for a medical technicality that was minor to the themes of guilt and man's dependence, one on another.

The Emperor, Sebastian Cabot, clothed only in a night-shirt (though he believes himself arrayed in a magnificent robe) parades before his subjects in "The Emperor's New Clothes," on tonight's full-hour feature of "Shirley Temple's Storybook" on the NBC-TV network.

'Big Country' Now Playing at Viking

The story of the opening of the old west is told in the movie, "The Big Country," which starts tonight at the Viking theater.

Gregory Peck stars in the picture, which also marks the actor's debut as an independent producer. Co-stars include such names as Charlton Heston, Burl Ives, Jean Simmons, Carroll Baker and Charles Bickford. Featured players are Alfonso Bedoya and Chuck Connors.

The movie was filmed in the Mojave desert and on the 3,000 acres of rolling grazing land in California where a troupe of some 150 persons were on location until the film was finished.

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Mann Says City Needs Elementary School

Tells Board of Education Edison Building Should be Replaced Soon

Immediate construction of a new elementary school to replace Edison school was recommended to the school board by School Supt. J. P. Mann Monday night.

Mann made his request in a report on estimated elementary school enrollment in the next five years.

The school will have 12 usable classrooms, next year, compared to 15 actually needed, Mann said. By 1963, the school will need 17 rooms, according to his census figures.

No Room
"The school is structurally sound, but not functionally sound," Mann declared.

"It should be replaced as soon as possible."

He also called for construction of a new school on the northwest side of the city by 1961 and foresaw need for another junior high school by 1962 or 1963.

Enrollment Prediction
He predicted a probable increase in enrollment of 2,100 by 1963. He said his enrollment predictions took into account students who would go to the new Catholic high school.

Mann recommended transfer of three school principals.

Kohler Portrait To be Unveiled At State Capitol

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — A portrait of Walter J. Kohler, Jr., will soon hang with others of men who have served Wisconsin as governor in the official portrait gallery of the state capitol.

The portrait of the governor who served from 1951-57, covering three elective terms, will be unveiled here on December 15.

It is customary for the state to purchase such portraits of former executives. Most of them hang in the executive offices in the main capitol building. Most recent additions to the gallery were likenesses of former Gov. Oscar Rennebohm, about a year ago, and of the late Gov. Walter S. Goodland, which was hung this year.

FBI Says Crime Shows Increase

Washington — The FBI said Monday crime increased by 11 per cent in the first nine months of this year, compared with the corresponding period in 1957.

Based on preliminary reports from cities over 25,000, the FBI crime index showed the following increases for seven types of offenses:

Robbery, 18 per cent; burglary, 14 per cent; forcible rape, 13 per cent; larceny, 13 per cent; auto theft, 5 per cent; murder, 3 per cent; aggravated assault, 2 per cent.

Beer License Lost By Restaurant Owner

Chilton — Herman Herman, owner of the Hilbert, lost his beer license for Herman's Lunch, which he operates, when he pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge Helmut J. Arps of permitting a gambling device to be used on premises for seven types of offenses.

He was arrested by state beverage tax department agents when they were paid 50 cents for achieving a high score on a pin ball game at the restaurant and beer tavern on Highway 55.

Red Feather Drive Still Short $3,400

Community Chest Faces 1st Deficit In Neenah-Menasha

Neenah — The Neenah-Menasha Community Chest fund drive is still about $3,400 short of its goal, reports Mrs. E. J. Schultheis, chairman of collections and statistics.

Collections have reached $118,342, according to Mrs. Schultheis. The goal is $121,800, highest in the history of the drive.

There still are some collections to come in, she pointed out. Approximately 30 persons who normally give in advance of the drive, still have not made a contribution.

Mrs. Schultheis said some business and professional solicitations still are expected. She requested these collections be brought to the chest headquarters at the earliest date so the Community Chest can wind up its 1958 Red Feather drive.

R. B. Sawtell, general campaign chairman, pointed out Neenah and Menasha have never failed to achieve a Red Feather goal. He said unless those who have not yet donated make a contribution there is a good chance the chest this year will fail.

The Community Chest in Neenah and Menasha supports 10 youth, health and welfare agencies. They are the Apostolate, Boy's Brigade, Boy Scouts, Children's Service society, Community Council, Family Service, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Visiting Nurses association and the YWCA.

170th New Home

Record $51 Rate Suggested for All-Time High $1,867,000 Levy; Budget Estimated at $3,563,000

Neenah — A $3 increase to set a $51 tax rate, an all-time high, is being proposed by the city council, Mayor Chester S. Bell announced today. Public hearing on the budget has been set for Dec. 10.

This increase amounts to a boost of 6.25 per cent in the tax rate, which the mayor said compares quite favorably with tax rate increases in other state cities.

Two factors were listed by the mayor as keeping the rate from going higher:

1. The willingness and voluntary cooperation of the various governmental agencies, such as the school board, park board, vocational school board, police and fire chiefs and department heads and other organizations to keep their expenditures at those items vitally necessary and deferring to future years various items desired next year.

2. A determination on the part of the city administration to hold the tax rate increase to the lowest possible figure compatible with good government.

Total budget proposed for next year is $3,563,157 with the amount to be raised by taxes being $1,867,029, another record high.

School Budget Cut

The proposed budget was agreed on at a lengthy meeting of the council in an informal committee of the whole session Monday night.

The mayor cited a voluntary cut by the school board of $35,000 in its proposed budget which in effect cut the tax rate increase by $1. The school board budget is up over this year because of the increased pressure upon the schools.

The tax levy rate needed for the schools is up $1.30 but it would have been up $2.30 had not the board of education made cuts in its requests, he indicated.

The park board and its director also were very cooperative and deferred until future years some requests, resulting in the outlays for the

300 Dynamite Caps Stolen From Quarry

Oshkosh — Theft of 300 dynamite caps of various types from the Schultz quarry operated by Courtney and Plummer off Tullar Road in the town of Neenah was reported this morning to the sheriff's department.

Officials warned the caps are exceedingly dangerous and could go off if struck with a hammer or might be triggered by a radio or battery spark or almost any jar. If any are found, they should be put in a metal container, away from the house, and authorities notified.

The caps look like a silver pencil, about 2 to 2 1/2 inches long, with 24-foot wires attached. The wires are rolled so that each cap looks like a package of rubber bands. All of the caps have "Dupont" stamped on them and a number, indicating the period of delay before discharge. They vary from .025 to .150 of a second.

The caps probably were taken sometime during the last week when most of the employees were deer hunting and the quarry was little used. A hack saw was used on the hasp of the cabinet in which the caps were stored.

Neenah Man Fined $50 at Oshkosh for Having Untagged Deer

Oshkosh — Herbert F. Van Oudenhoven, 23, 109 Olive street, Neenah, admitted having possession of an untagged deer and was fined $50 and costs by Municipal Judge S. J. Luchsinger this morning.

Van Oudenhoven pleaded innocent of dumping rubbish on a highway and preliminary examination was set for 3 p. m. Tuesday, Dec. 2.

School Board Told To Cut $34,000 From '59 Budget

Council Allows Only $730,808 of $764,808 Asked for Operation

Menasha — The council has asked the board of education to cut its proposed budget by $34,000, it was revealed at Monday night's board meeting.

A letter was received from Mayor R. G. DuCharme stating the council could only allow $730,808 of the $764,808 requested by the board.

Ted R. Neely, acting school board president in the absence of Robert Farrell, said the board will have to readjust proposed expenditures to realize the $34,000 cut. The letter was referred to the finance committee consisting of commissioners Harry Kind, James Omachinski and William Snyder.

During an informal meeting following the regular board meeting, Neely told members of the Nicolet funds and reimbursements, Grade school and Menasha sales and rents, and the unhigh school Parent-Teacher associations the board had cut to bare essentials to reach the $764,808 figure it submitted to the council.

"We deferred as many expenditures as possible before submitting a final budget to the council. The board's unanimous opinion was that $764,808 was needed to properly run the school system in 1959," Neely stated.

He said the board did not know where to make any more cuts and was at the point where a vital school service might have to be eliminated.

Last year when the council cut $29,000 out of the board's $584,790 budget it designated what should be taken out. This year's suggestions of things to cut out were not offered by the aldermen.

The city of Menasha will pay 78.7 per cent and the town of Menasha 21.3 per cent of the school board money which comes from taxation.

A total of $162,916 is anticipated next year from state and county aids, tuition, reimbursements, sales and rents, and the unexpended cash balance at the end of the year.

The total budget has increased almost $200,000 in the last four years. This year the budget was $706,628; $655,266 in 1957, and $589,153 in 1956.

School Board Rejects Bids, Hires City Crew

Menasha Street Department to Build Playground

Menasha — Two bids submitted for preparing and blacktopping a playground area in back of Clovis-Grove grade school were rejected by the school board Monday night and the city street department was hired to do the work.

Properties committee Chairman John Fitzpatrick said the board would save money by letting street crews do the job. Besides, this is a slack season for the crews and they have time for the project, he related.

Burt Hosterman, president of Badger Highways corporation, one of the bidders, agreed the board could legally reject the bids and hire someone else to do the work.

Irregular Bid

However, both Hosterman and Pat Flanagan, an employee of Badger Highways, stressed that the bid of Courtney and Plummer, Inc., Neenah, was an irregular bid as it did not fulfill specifications drawn by City Engineer Melvin Noth.

Fitzpatrick said his committee agreed the Courtney and Plummer bid was not a proper bid. He stressed both bids were rejected because city street crews were free to do the work and it was too late to have the area blacktopped this winter, anyway.

The board also authorized purchase of three pieces of playground equipment for Clovis-Grove school for $800: a lawn mower for $426; and installation of a force flow heater in the kindergarten vestibule, a fan over the stove in the conference room and automatic temperature control in the general office and principal's office at a total cost of $853.

Theodore Utschig, Clovis-Grove school general contractor, was paid $2,100 for removing 21 trees at the school site and $212 for framing the stage opening into the gymnasium.

Citizenship Building He said club work is a citizenship building program, giving members a feeling of belonging to something large in scope and worthwhile. The acid test of our program is what actually happens to our young people of today. The paycheck of leadership is seeing our youth develop into wholesome desirable citizens, he said.

Pilgrim's Saint

Squanto Gave Gifts of Corn

He was the Indian Saint of Plymouth and Gov. Bradford called him "a special instrument sent by God for their good beyond expectation" but few people would recognize his name today.

Historians say that without him, there would have been no first Thanksgiving Day 337 years ago—or the Pilgrims would have had no crops to give thanks for.

But there are no towns named for him, no highways or bridges—only a lonely point on the Massachusetts coast

Sew Adjustable Dresses for Growing Legs

Wondering how to keep up with the growing legs on your school-age darlings? Sew them smart "grow dresses" says Martha Blair, a sewing institute director. The "grow dress" is a simple one-piece jumper with wide, shirred waistband, full skirt with deep hem and adjustable shoulder straps. Very little time or money is needed to sew up a whole wardrobe of grow dresses for your active youngster, says Miss Blair.

To make the basic jumper, cut two pieces of dress fabric 24 inches by 36 inches. Shirr one long edge of each piece to a depth of six inches with elastic cord. Sew up the side seams. Sew adjustable shoulder straps to the top of the shirring, turn up the hem to the desired length.

For a charming designer's touch, sew wide bands of decorative stitching along the hemline, then stitch matching embroidery on the shoulder straps which can tie, button, snap or buckle in whatever way your junior miss prefers.

Miniature Figurines of Indians with feathered headdresses and gray frocked Pilgrims decorated the Thanksgiving centerpiece of Countryside Homemakers club at the recent Homemaker Christmas fair. A horn of plenty overflowed with holiday cookies made by the Homemakers.

County Homemakers List Holiday Cookie Recipes To Fill Horn of Plenty

Neenah — For munching while the turkey bakes and for a late afternoon snack on Thanksgiving day, prepare a holiday horn of plenty. A basket horn of the goodies can serve as a table or buffet centerpiece. Add Pilgrim or Indian figurines and evergreen branches to complete the arrangement.

A recipe for a festive cookie, mocha balls, has been listed by Mrs. Fern Abrams of the Busy Bees Homemaker club. Crush one large, seven ounce box of vanilla wafers into fine crumbs. There should be two cups. Add two cups of powdered sugar and mix well. Stir in two-thirds cup finely chopped pecans and two tablespoons cocoa.

Add one-fourth cup heavy whipped cream and one-fourth cup double strength cold coffee. Mix well and shape into balls, about three-fourths inch in diameter. Roll some of the balls in additional powdered sugar. Chill, do not bake. The recipe makes about four dozen.

Mrs. Joseph Weger, Rockaway Beach Homemaker

club, suggests cream cheese cookies for the holidays. Her recipe requires one cup butter, one cup sugar, one beaten egg, one teaspoon lemon rind, two and one-half cups flour, one 3 ounce package of cream cheese, one tablespoon lemon juice, and one teaspoon baking powder.

Blend the butter and cream cheese, adding the sugar and blending thoroughly. Add the beaten egg, lemon juice and rind. Blend well. Sift the flour and baking powder and mix in. Chill overnight. Force through two and one-half inch strip cookie press onto an ungreased baking sheet.

Bake at 375 degrees for 8 to 10 minutes. Frosting for the cream cheese cookies is made by blending one cup powdered sugar and two tablespoons of lemon juice. When the cookies are cool, dip one end into the frosting and then into one-half cup chopped pecans.

California Delights
A favorite of Mrs. Robert Pause, Thursday Homemaker club, is California Delights. The recipe requires one cup shortening, one-half cup butter, two teaspoons powdered ammonium carbonate, two cups sugar, two and one-half cups sifted flour and one cup shredded cocoanut.

Cream shortening and butter and add the ammonium carbonate, which can be purchased at a baking shop, and sugar. Cream well. Add flour and mix again. Add cocoanut. Form balls three-fourths inch in diameter. Place one inch apart on a cookie sheet. Bake at 325 degrees for 20 minutes or until light brown. Roll in powdered sugar.

Apple Bars
The recipe for spicy apple bars was submitted by Mrs. Arthur Luebke, Oshkosh Homemaker club. It calls for one-half cup shortening, one cup sugar, two unbeaten eggs, one cup sifted flour, one teaspoon baking powder, one-half teaspoon soda, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon cocoa, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon nutmeg, one-fourth teaspoon cloves, one cup rolled oats, one and one-half cups diced pared apples, and one-half cup coarsely chopped nuts.

Cream shortening and sugar until fluffy. Beat eggs in one at a time. Sift together dry ingredients and add to creamed mixture. Stir in rolled oats, apples and nuts. Spread in a baking pan and bake at 375 degrees for about 25 minutes. Cool slightly and cut into bars or squares. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

For a variation, bake in a smaller pan and serve as a pudding with ice cream.

Woodrow Wilson, eastern field director of the state association, is using the office for a home base. Wilson moved to Appleton in July from the Madison state office.

Facilities in the bank building were obtained through the cooperation of S. N. Pickard, president of National Manufacturers bank. At the end of six months the association hopes to move into permanent quarters above the Neenah Red Cross chapter office on E. Wisconsin avenue.

The office staff at present is using a minimum of office furniture and a rented typewriter. Persons wishing to donate office furniture or a typewriter in good repair are to contact Dr. Hardie.

Library Adds Book on Study About Communism

Neenah — Among new books added to the Neenah Public library is "What We Must Know About Communism" by Harry and Bonara Overstreet, authors and lecturers in the field of public relations.

The authors see communism — its theory, the party and the Soviet Union — as a subject that demands study not only by specialists but by everyone since all have to respond to problems which communism creates in the world, according to Miss May Hart, librarian.

The book has been written to help the individual understand communism by giving facts about Soviet theory and practice. It reflects the world in which we must live knowingly if our kind of civilization is to cope with the challenge of communism, she said.

Of interest to collectors is "Alice Templeton's Music Boxes" by the famed pianist and composer who owns one of the largest private collections of music boxes and clockwork in America. The adventures he has had in acquiring them and the fascinating history of each piece are recounted in this sprightly and anecdote-packed book.

There also is an informal study of the craft of making music boxes and the music used in them.

"The Wildest Game" by Peter Ryhner describes the author's travels to South America for a year to learn about animal collecting from Lothar Behrend, one of the most fabulous men in the business.

After a year of collecting in South America, he widened his field to include east and west Africa, India, Southeast Asia and Indonesia. Wherever wild game, wanted by zoos of the world, could be found, Ryhner has been a hunter without guns.

Other new non-fiction books of current interest include "Double Exposure" by Gloria Vanderbilt and Thelma Lady Furness, "Anne Frank — a Portrait in Courage" by Ernest Schnabel, "The Shook-Up Generation" by Harrison Salisbury, a book about today's juvenile delinquents from "The Seven Fat Years" by John Brooks which deals with the men, manners and methods of Wall Street, "Journey to the Beginning" by Edgar Snow, "Emotional Problems of Adolescents" by Gallagher and "Dangerous Fathers, Problem Mothers and Terrible Teens" by Carlyle Marney.

New fiction titles include "The Ugly Americans" by William Lederer, "The Rain-bow and the Rose" by Nevil Shute, "Cocktail Time" by P. G. Wodehouse, "Victorine" by Frances Parkinson Keyes, "Return of the Stranger" by Dorothy Roberts, "Mrs. Aris Goes to Paris" by Paul Gallico and "The Devil of the Woods" by Paul Ammer.

Rocket Cagers Begin Home Schedule Against Ripon '5'

Tiger Squad Includes Eight Lettermen; Neenah Posts 1-1

Neenah — Neenah will kick off its home basketball schedule Wednesday evening with Ripon of the Little Ten conference providing the opposition.

The game will be the first of two this week for the Rockets who begin league play here Friday against defending champion Shawano. Neenah split even in its first two starts last week, losing by three points to heavily-favored Fond du Lac and then whipping Wisconsin Rapids by 12.

Ripon has eight returning lettermen from last year's squad which had 7-3 in conference play and wound up with a 14-7 mark. The Tigers got all the way to the sectional tournament finals where they lost to Madison West.

Coach Jim Seidl has eight lettermen from last year's squad. They are Bob VanMetre, Bruce Gehri, Lelon Klemp, Bruce Kelma, Ken Keenlance, Mike Reinsch, Dennis Sommers and Mike Lundeen.

Other top prospects are Jack Ballard, Carleton Stoll and Mike Campbell.

Take 76-42 Win

Neenah's scoring attack, which has been balanced, has been sparked by lettermen Bill Kuehl and four boys from last year's jayvee team, Jack Ankerson, Bob Toller, Jon Halverson and Dick Wilson. All had at least eight in Saturday's 70-58 win over Rapids.

Neenah cruised to a 76-42 win over the Tigers in last year's meeting as it hit 43 per cent from the floor on 33 baskets in 76 tries.

Fred Seggelink led the Rockets with 20 points. Of the returnees, Bill Kuehl and Jerry Moder each had six points. Jerry Hensen four and Jim Jensen two.

Sommers, a starter as a sophomore, paced Ripon with seven baskets. Klemp scored 13 points. VanMetre saw very little action because he was still suffering from the effects of a football injury. He tallied 16 against the Rockets the year before as a sophomore.

Neenah — James Hanson, Menasha University of Wisconsin extension center cager, is leading the extension conference scorers with 51 points.

Second is held by Richard Jossart of Kenosha who has 48 points in two games on 21 fielders and six gift tosses. Merrill Millhiser of Green Bay is third with 46 points, also in three games.

No other Menasha players are among the top 15 scorers.

Leading the team standings are Kenosha, Racine and Wausau, all with 2-0 records.

Racine has posted the best offensive and defensive records having scored 150 points and allowed only 82.

Marinette and Sheboygan, the defending champion, are tied for the next spot with 1-1.

Manitowish and Manitowish are tied for the next spot with 1-1. Both Manitowish and Manitowish are winless. Manitowish with two losses and Manitowish with three.

In recent games Green Bay takes on Trinity (0-1) in the beat Menasha 64-52. Sheboygan topped Marinette 80-51 and Wausau bested Manitowish 71-55.

Five games are scheduled for this week, opening with Wausau at Green Bay Wednesday night. Kenosha is at Manitowish Friday while three games are on the schedule Saturday night. They include Menasha at Marinette, Kenosha at Sheboygan and Manitowish at Racine.

Neenah — Neenah High school will continue with the same policy and admission prices for grade school students attending home basketball games according to E. W. Zenisek, director of ticket sales.

The policy, started last year, allows students from grades five through eight to purchase a season ticket for the 10 home games at $1.50. Admission at the door for students from the first through eighth grades will be 25 cents. Students in the first four grades are admitted only when accompanied by a parent or other adult guardian and students in grades five through eight, when not accompanied by a parent, or adult guardian, will be required to sit in the section which is being reserved and supervised for students who have purchased the grade school season ticket.

Patterson May Have 4 Bouts In '59, Says Cus

Manager Reveals He Has Met With Johansson

BY BEN OLAN

New York — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson probably will have four fights next year and Sweden's Ingemar Johansson has "as good a chance as anyone" to fight for the title.

So says Cus D'Amato, Patterson's secretive manager. D'Amato, who has been feuding with the International Boxing club, emerged from behind his Iron Curtain long enough to tell The Associated Press:

1. He has met here with Johansson and his manager Edwin Ahlquist several times in the last few days.

No Contracts
2. No contracts were signed and no definite arrangements made.

3. He had an offer from Colorado Springs, Colo., that would guarantee Patterson more money than he ever has received.

"We cleared up the air at these meetings with Johansson and Ahlquist," said D'Amato. "We cleared up many misunderstandings that existed involving both of us things I was supposed to have said and things that they were quoted as saying."

"I think, in view of our new understandings, that when Johansson goes back home he will have a new attitude as to thinking of what might happen."

Johansson, the European heavyweight titleholder and ranked as the No. 1 challenger for the world crown, has won 21 straight bouts since turning pro after the 1952 Olympics in Helsinki. In his most recent fight, Sept. 14, he knocked out previously unbeaten Eddie Machen, Redding, Calif., in one round.

Fought Aug. 18
Patterson last fought Aug. 18 when he stopped Roy Harris of Cut and Shoot, Texas, in 12 rounds.

"I never have dealt with one individual opponent," added D'Amato. "I deal with a series of opponents. If Patterson does fight Johansson, he will be in the 90 per cent tax bracket. In other words, no fighter (opponent) is essential. If Patterson continues to win, I would say that he will have four fights next year."

D'Amato said that Thayer Tutt is chairman of the committee which made the substantial offer for a title bout in Colorado Springs next summer. The fight would be a part of a centennial celebration.

The Start of the NCAA cross country run Monday featured this traffic jam de luxe. Part of the field of 106 is shown starting over the snow-covered course, which covers approximately 4 miles. Crawford Kennedy, of Michigan State, won the individual title in 20:07.1, and the Spartans also took the team title.

Physician Makes No Prediction on 'Red's' Return

St. Louis — "Red" Schoendienst's attending physician said Monday night he is not making any predictions as to whether Red will be able to play baseball with the Milwaukee Braves in 1959.

Dr. William Werner said, "Red's doing real well and we're very proud of him as a patient, but no one knows for sure yet if he'll be able to play next year or not."

Schoendienst has been under treatment in a sanitarium after a series of tests disclosed several days ago that he had tuberculosis. Earlier Monday Schoendienst's personal physician, Dr. Raymond Martin, had said that "Red's" playing in 1959 "was out of the question."

Dr. Martin refused to even estimate the time it would take Schoendienst to recover from tuberculosis. John Quinn, Braves general manager, said that "We all feel very badly about the news that 'Red' won't play next year, but our only concern right now is getting him well again."

be the worst season in Packer history.

Green Bay's worst season was 1949 when — in Curly Lambeau's last season as coach — the record was 2-10. The Packers beat Detroit, 16-14, and the old New York Bulldogs, 19-0. The 'Dogs had none other than Bobby Layne at quarterback. He was then a refugee sophomore from the Bears.

End Season At LA
The Packers would have to lose all of their last three games to go down as the team with "the worst" record. Such a horrible circumstance would place the final record at 1-10-1.

Tasty turkey Thursday would set the Packers' mark at 2-7-1, and get the team in fine spirits for a revenge battle at San Francisco Dec. 7. The season ends at Los Angeles Dec. 14.

The Packers had one other 2 win season — in 1953, which was Gene Ronzani's final year, when the team posted 2-9-1.

Had to Forget
The Packers now have a 4-game losing streak going since whipping Philadelphia, 38-35, here Oct. 26. Since then, they lost to Baltimore, 56-0; the Bears, 24-10; Los Angeles, 20-7; and San Francisco last Sunday, 33-12.

With a short practice week, the Packers had to forget that 40er setback in a hurry. Coach Ray McLean called a squad meeting for Monday

Pick Coenen, Newhouse Co-Captains

Freedom's Ron Newhouse and Appleton's Jim Coenen Monday night were named co-captains of the 1959 St. Norbert college football team.

The Fox Cities pair in '58 helped to make the Knights' aerial attack one of the best among the nation's small colleges despite the team's 3-6 season record.

Quarterback Newhouse set a school completion record with 104 successes in 211 passes. He also created new records with 1,310 yards and 13 touchdown passes.

Coenen, an end, caught 31 passes for 373 yards and six touchdowns. The TD total ties a school record for scoring catches.

Coenen and Dennis Penza, his running mate at end, both broke the old pass reception record of 30 established by Pat Smithwick in '50. Penza caught 38.

Howton's dropping of Parilli's pass in the end zone, which would have put the Packers ahead, 16-12, in the third quarter, was a wicked blow for the veteran Packer QB. "Babe" was, and still is, looking for some confidence.

Burks, Ulwelling Lead Frosh to Win

Chicagoan Hits 30 Points in 69-62 Upset of UW Varsity

Madison — Fabulous Frank Burks scored 30 points and showed the varsity how to play basketball Monday night as he led Wisconsin's freshmen to a 69-62 victory over the Badger regulars.

The 6-4 freshman from Chicago scored 15 points in each half and snatched 19 rebounds from the backboards. He netted 12 of his 16 field goal shots and made six of 11 free throws.

Runnerup to Burks in frosh scoring with 11 points was Appleton's Jack Ulwelling, who captained the team. Ulwelling sank four of 10 floor shots and three of five free throws. "Quarterbacked" the team from his guard spot and stood out on defense.

Tom Hughbanks, of Green Bay East, added 10 points to the winners' total and was second only to Burks in rebounding.

Burks sank six of his first eight field goal shots as the freshmen bolted to a 20-8 lead in the first 10 minutes of the game.

The frosh took the lead at 5-4 with 3:11 gone and never were headed again. The starting frosh unit was withdrawn with 9:37 of the half left and the team ahead, 20-8. The varsity proceeded to close the gap to 29-28 by halftime.

Guard Brian Kulas, who made 15 points, was the varsity's only starting player who scored more than three points.

Forward Bob Barneson scored on a free throw, center Ray Gross netted three charity points and guard Bob Serbiak had two free throws. Forward John Stack, the fifth starter, scored two points on a free throw.

Varsity scoring honors went to Rick Murray, a reserve last season, who scored 16 points.

The only time the varsity's fast-breaking offense clicked was when sophomores Ivan Jefferson and Jim Biggs re-

LSU Again First in AP Grid Poll

Wisconsin Drops To Sixth in Semi-Final Ratings

By The Associated Press. Louisiana State, which has completed its first perfect football season in half a century, was ranked No. 1 today in the weekly Associated Press poll for the fifth straight week and appeared on the way to winning its first national championship ever.

Paul Dietzel's outfit finished with a 10-0 record, won the Southeastern conference championship and will be the host team in the Sugar bowl. All this by a team that could do no better than a .500 mark a year ago and was not even considered a threat for the league title two months ago.

Semis Formality

There will be one more poll next week, but it seems nothing more than a formality for LSU to stay at the top. LSU is the only undefeated-untied major college team.

The sports writers and sportscasters gave LSU 115 first-place votes, good for 1,445 points out of the usual system of 10 for first, nine for second and so on.

There were only 41 first-place votes which the Tigers did not corral. And practically all these ballots listed them in second place.

Auburn, last year's national champion—which would have won the SEC title had Louisiana State faltered one little bit, was second with 1,063 points. Auburn had an 8-0-1 mark.

Oklahoma, which will play Syracuse in the Orange bowl, was the only other team that managed to collect more than 1,000 points. The third-place Sooners, beaten once in nine games, had 1,007 points.

Big Ten champion Iowa, which goes against California in the Rose bowl, was fourth. The Hawkeyes had 16 first-place votes.

Then, following in order, were Army, Wisconsin, Texas Christian, Air Force academy, Ohio State and Syracuse. Ohio State is the only newcomer to the top 10. The Buckeyes replaced Purdue, which was tied by Indiana Army took a tumble from third place a week ago, but that probably was because the Cadets were idle last Saturday.

The top 10 with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Louisiana State (115)
2. Auburn (9)
3. Oklahoma (8)
4. Iowa (6)
5. Army (4)
6. Wisconsin (3)
7. Texas Christian (3)
8. Air Force (1)
9. Ohio State (1)
10. Syracuse (1)

Second in Purdue 254, Clemson 111, Mississippi 177, Florida 171, Vanderbilt 169, South Carolina 126, California 101, Notre Dame 95, Pittsburgh 81, Rutgers 51.

Folley Beats 'Long Count'

TKOs Jamaica's Joe Bygraves In England

Leicester, England.—Heavyweight contender Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., today found himself with a new tag—the man who beat the British "long count."

It happened Monday night in his winning fight against Joe Bygraves of Jamaica, the former British Empire heavyweight champion.

The 27-year-old American floored Bygraves for a nine count in the second round. Then came the controversial delay of a second or two in the referee's count. Bygraves got to his feet and the fight continued.

There was no official explanation of the "long count," but it seemed to stem from a misunderstanding between Scottish Referee Frank Wilson and the timekeeper.

Folley, the third-ranked challenger for Floyd Patterson's world title, toyed with Bygraves. He threw 10 punches for every one by the Jamaican.

Referee Wilson stopped the fight with one second remaining in the ninth round. The bout was scheduled for 10.

Packer Win Would Avert Worst Season

afternoon—usually an off day, and loosened up lightly. A workout was scheduled for this afternoon.

McLean called off Wednesday's drill — "maybe a little extra rest will help everybody," he said. Normally, the team takes just a light drill on the day before a game.

The Packers will leave by a chartered United Airlines plane from Austin Straubel field at 1:20 Wednesday afternoon. They'll stay at the Fort Shelby. Kickoff is set for Thursday noon, which is 11 a.m. in Green Bay.

Forester 'Doubtful'

Bill Forester is the Packers' only doubtful starter. He injured his ankle early in the 49er game and was replaced by Marv Matuszak the new-comer from San Francisco.

Matuszak or Dan Currie will replace him. Currie plays both outside linebacker spots.

The squad has a "lot of little hurts," McLean said — "nothing serious but Bill."

Currie, the former Michigan State ace, will be making his first appearance "back home." The Detroit native, who played at St. Anthony High, saw little action in the earlier Lion game in Green Bay. But he's sure to figure strongly in the Packers' defense Thursday.

All of the Packers will be on special display Thursday because the game will be televised from coast to coast and will have an audience in the high millions.

As McLean put it, "this is the time, where everybody is watching us, to make something out of this season yet."

Bobcats Sign All-American

Dick Dougherty Played With Gophers, Olympians

Green Bay.—The Green Bay Bobcats, loading up for their Mid-America Hockey league opener here Saturday night, today signed their second former All-American.

He is Dick Dougherty, 25-year old resident of International Falls, Minn., and a 3-time member of the United States Olympic and national hockey teams. "The Bobcats," other All-American is forward Andy Cicoria.

Dougherty played three years of varsity hockey at the University of Minnesota from 1951 through 1954.

A right wing, he is co-holder of the Western Intercollegiate Hockey conference scoring record.

Dougherty, assistant varsity coach at Minnesota last season, played with the United States Nationals in 1955, with the U. S. Olympic team in 1956 and with the Nationals again in 1957 before returning to school to resume work toward a teaching certificate.

The Bobcats, who resume practice here Wednesday night with the return of ice to the Brown County Veterans Memorial arena, open against the Calumet, Mich., Radars in a weekend series starting Saturday night. The Radars also will provide the opposition Sunday afternoon.

Australian Fans Fear Loss Of Cooper, Anderson to Pros

Sidney, Australia.—Australian tennis has an assembly line of amateur talent second to none. But folks hereabouts are wondering today whether it might be too slow to offset the probable loss of Ashley Cooper and Mal Anderson to the pros.

When promoter Jack Kramer and his Yankee dollars lured away Aussie Davis Cuppers Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor, Australia didn't like it. Lew Hoad and Ken Rosewall stepped in to keep the country No. 1 in the tennis world.

When Hoad and Rosewall succumbed to Kramer's bid, would not make a decision until after the Davis cup matches.

Both Cooper, 22, and Anderson, 23, confirmed Monday they have received offers from Kramer. Each said he would not make a decision until after the Davis cup matches.

College Football Heads Into Final Big Week

BY JACK CLARY Associated Press Sports Writer

The 1958 college football season has hit the past, present and future stage with performance awards, game preparations and new captainties highlighting the beginning of the final big week.

Half of the nation's teams finished their season last weekend and only a handful will continue after games Thanksgiving day and Saturday.

The past was represented at five Big Ten universities. Purdue, Indiana, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan State where most valuable players were chosen on the basis of season performances.

Pieks Franckhauser Purdue, which finished with a 6-1-2 record, and 3-1-2 in the Big Ten for fourth place, named senior end Tom Franckhauser most valuable. Iowa picked quarterback Randy Duncan and Illinois chose center Gene Cherney.

Capt. Mike Rabold, senior guard on Indiana's surprise Big Ten outfit, got the nod from his teammates. His defensive play was credited with helping the Hoosiers to their best season since 1947. Indiana finished with a 5-3-1 record and was fifth in the Big Ten with a 3-2-1 mark. Sammy Williams, an end, was the MSU pick.

There still is the present work toward a teaching certificate.

Older Man Advised to Look For Income Rather Than Growth Stocks

BY WILLIAM A. DOYLE

Q. I am 65. I own 100 shares of American Telephone and Telegraph, 200 Standard Oil of Indiana, 150 Eastman Kodak, 1000 Udylite Corporation and 500 Parker Rust Proof.

A. I bought the last two in 1938, paying $1,500 for Udylite and $5,000 for Parker Rust Proof. I am getting ready to retire and wonder whether I should sell these two and buy more AT and T.

A. That would be a sensible move. Udylite Corporation and Parker Rust Proof have served you well over the years. You have a fat profit in both of them. But, now that you are approaching retirement, you want more stable investments. AT and T or some other defensive type stock would be the kind you want.

And, while you're about it, you might think about switching out of Eastman Kodak into something with a better dividend return. This is a high quality stock but it is a growth situation. So, if you need income, your money would probably work for you better in higher yielding issues.

On the other hand, if you get along without aiming for higher immediate income, there would be no reason to unload company is continuing its expansion. Its sales and earnings have moved way up. Just now, the stock is selling on growth potential and the potential looks good.

Blue Chip Standard Oil of California is another growth situation. It's a Standard Oil of California, 20 blue chip and will probably all ways be one. And, of course, the same thing goes for U. S. Steel in April, 1957.

I have faith that the first three have growth possibilities. But I am concerned about Pacific "an old maid's stock" Southern Pacific. A broker I know calls this "an old maid's I do. This one is good for old stock." What is your honest opinion of all four issues?

A. To borrow a phrase from TV's Jackie Gleason: "They're a good group." By this time each and every one is selling well above what you paid. They all came through the recession and stock market slump with flying colors and are doing well. They must be counted as good long-range investments.

You may not get a really big dividend payout on Lucky Stores for some time. The choice?

A. Yes. It's unlikely that you'll get rich on this investment. But Firstamerica stock should increase in value over the next few years.

Firstamerica controls banks in 11 western states. The population and industry in the areas in which it operates have been growing and will undoubtedly continue to do so. It's only natural to expect that Firstamerica will benefit from that growth.

MU Varsity Smash Frosh Quint, 95-45

Associated Press all-state prep team two years ago, took just two shots in the first half, sinking one field goal. He returned after intermission and netted five field goals and three free throws.

High scorer for the freshmen was Joe Scanlon of Chicago, who had nine points. A crowd of 3,300 was on hand in the Arena.
